1965 JAMBALAYA

YEAR BOOK OF
TULANE UNIVERSITY

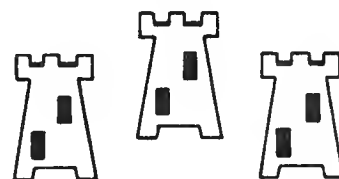

Welcome to the 1965 JAMBALAYA. It is our sincere hope that you will be proud of this book, and in twenty years you will be able to take it off your bookshelf, blow off the dust, and commence reading, to rediscover Tulane, 1964-65. In brief, the u-ni-ver'si-ty, n.; pl. u-ni-ver'si-ties, (ME. universite; OFr. universite; L. universitas, the whole, universe, society, guild.) 1. the universe. (Obs.) 2. an educational institution of the highest level, typically with one or more undergraduate schools, or colleges, together with a program of graduate studies and a number of professional schools, and authorized to confer various degrees, as the bachelor's, master's, and doctor's. 3. the grounds, buildings, etc. of a university. 4. the faculty and student body of a university.

1965 JAMBALAYA will attempt in the pages to follow, to capture Tulane University as a unique and meaningful little world, made possible and productive by its population: students, faculty, and administration. In essence, the book has no theme, except the theme of Tulane's life, its people and its activities, what it is doing and what it is trying to do.

This year at Tulane marked the end of one era and the beginning of another. Tulane's reputation as a good, Southern, private university was changing. Tulane did not want to be good, it wanted to be excellent; not just respected in the South, but respected nationally. After years of regional recognition and a period of lethargy, our university began the move forward, a movement which was ours to witness in the year 1964-65.

With financial aid from large foundations pouring into Tulane this year, our university had to take stock of itself. What could Tulane offer in return for these gifts of confidence? With this aid, the school could raise the pay of professors, build better classrooms, and enlarge its curriculum. All of these improvements were extremely necessary to the final product, but in reality, the only product Tulane had to offer the community, the nation, and the world was an individual. It is this individual who will determine the success or failure of Tulane's rejuvenation.

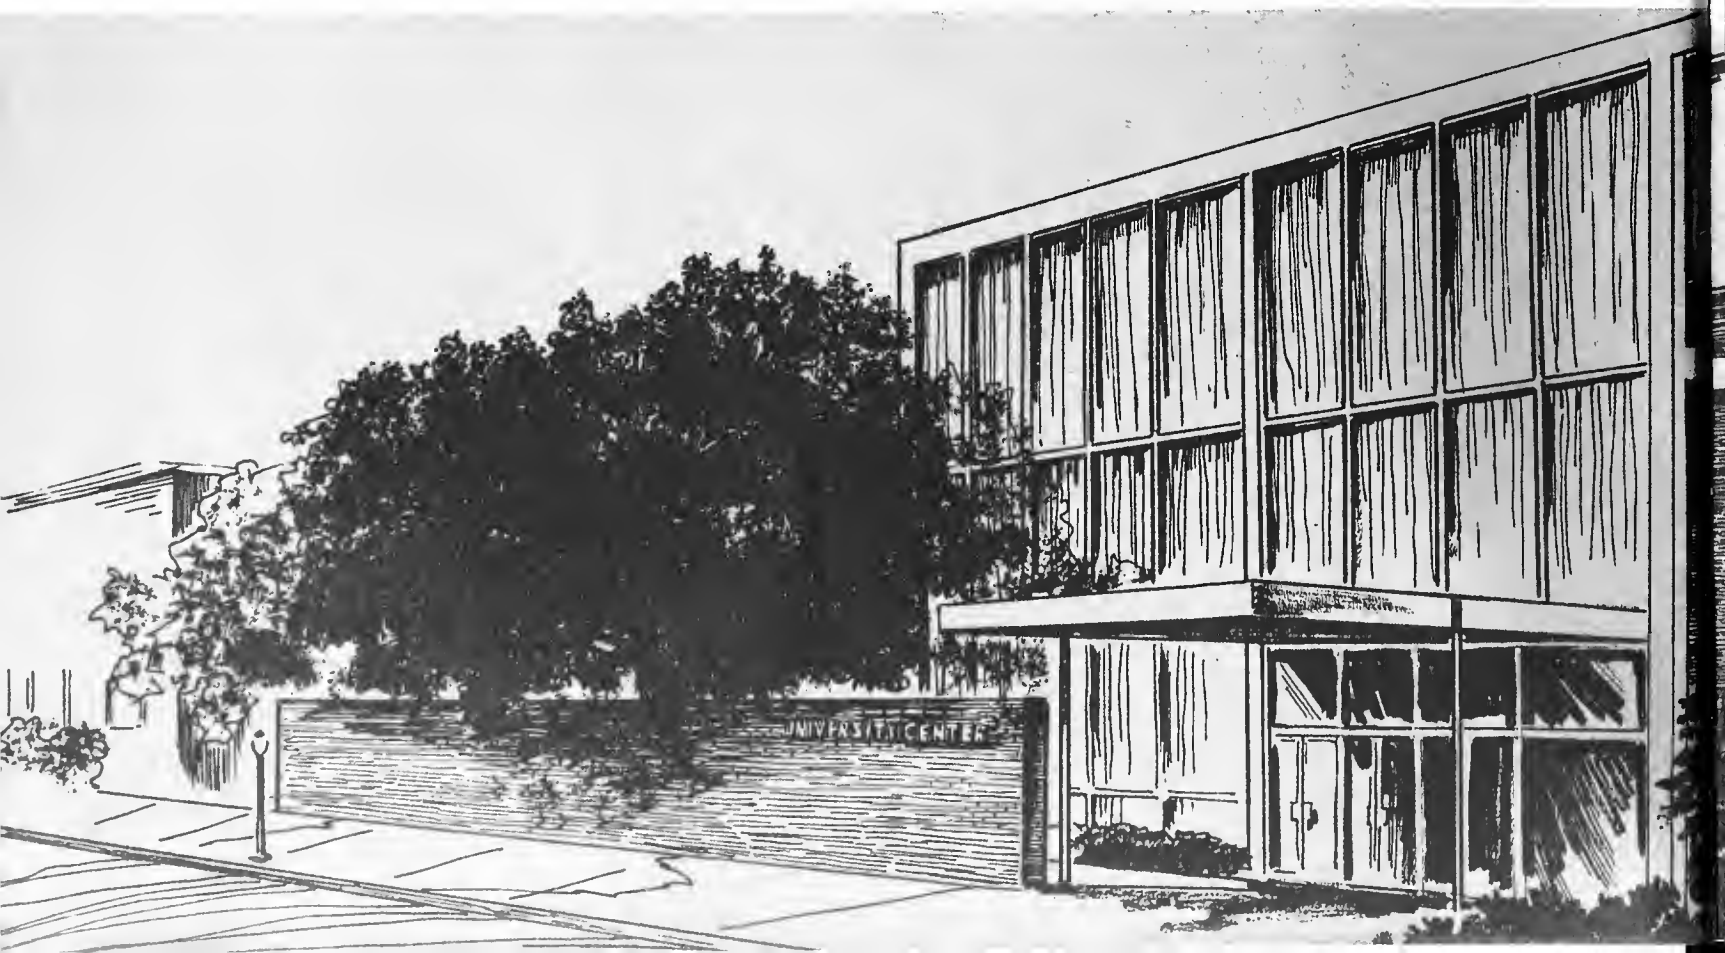

In our pictorial essay, the individual may be observed in every conceivable mood expressing a panorama of emotions. The gamut of moods was from excitement to depression, happiness to anxiety, and enthusiasm to apathy. Perhaps, the most prevalent mood has been considered to be apathy. However, seated students at a football game, one-man House Council races, and partially supported student activities are not expressions of apathy. Instead, they are illustrations of a peculiar Tulane trait which we will choose to call "adequacy." In keeping with his idea of gentility, the Tulane individual employs what may be termed a perversion of the ancient formula—"nothing to excess." It is not that no one cares; it is simply that one does not overexert oneself, for the insane reason that it is just not done here. But again, the mood of the campus is only important in that it reflects the mood of the individual.

By following him through four years of activity at Tulane, the JAMBALAYA has attempted to present an accurate picture of the type of individual being molded at our university. Only you, the reader, can truly understand what this individual has experienced. For you are the individual of whom we speak. You are the product of Tulane University, and you are the gift of Tulane to the world.

ONE YEAR AT TULANE

*September Song at Tulane is a hurried tune;
it sings of luggage and packing crates,
Pan Hel football and spirited campaigns;
new roommates and registration; its final strains call forth the beginning of classes.*

The serenity of the Newcomb Green exhibits a marked contrast to the burst of color and excitement of a football game, but both express the definite air of autumn at Tulane.

A multitude of activities are available to students to fill their moments of leisure.

Homecoming Weekend brings an aura of excitement, beginning with the creation of elaborate displays and culminating with the afternoon football game.

Unhappily, Tulane students find that rain plays an integral part of their life in the Crescent City. Whether in hurricane gales or silent showers, Tulanians value the umbrella as a most essential possession.

The relaxation of a late afternoon sail or the competitive spirit of intramural games portray the many diversions open to those students who wish to break the familiar routine.

Tulane provides kaleidoscopic variety to the education of the individual—from science to the arts, one can achieve his quest for knowledge.

At night the campus settles . . . Concentrated study prevails, but is broken by frequent trips for coffee and conversation at the University Center.

The campus landscape itself, its buildings and structures, imbues a sense of pride and nostalgia to any alumnus, and as graduation arrives, each senior cannot help but feel an endearing closeness to Tulane.

The city also permeates the life and habits of the student. Familiar scenes of the French Quarter symbolize the charm and interest of New Orleans.

Mardi Gras with its myriads of people, costumes, and noises is a unique experience and happy time in the City that Care Forgot.

A night in New Orleans is not complete without coffee and doughnuts at the French Market—the fitting end to a quick sketch of life at TULANE.

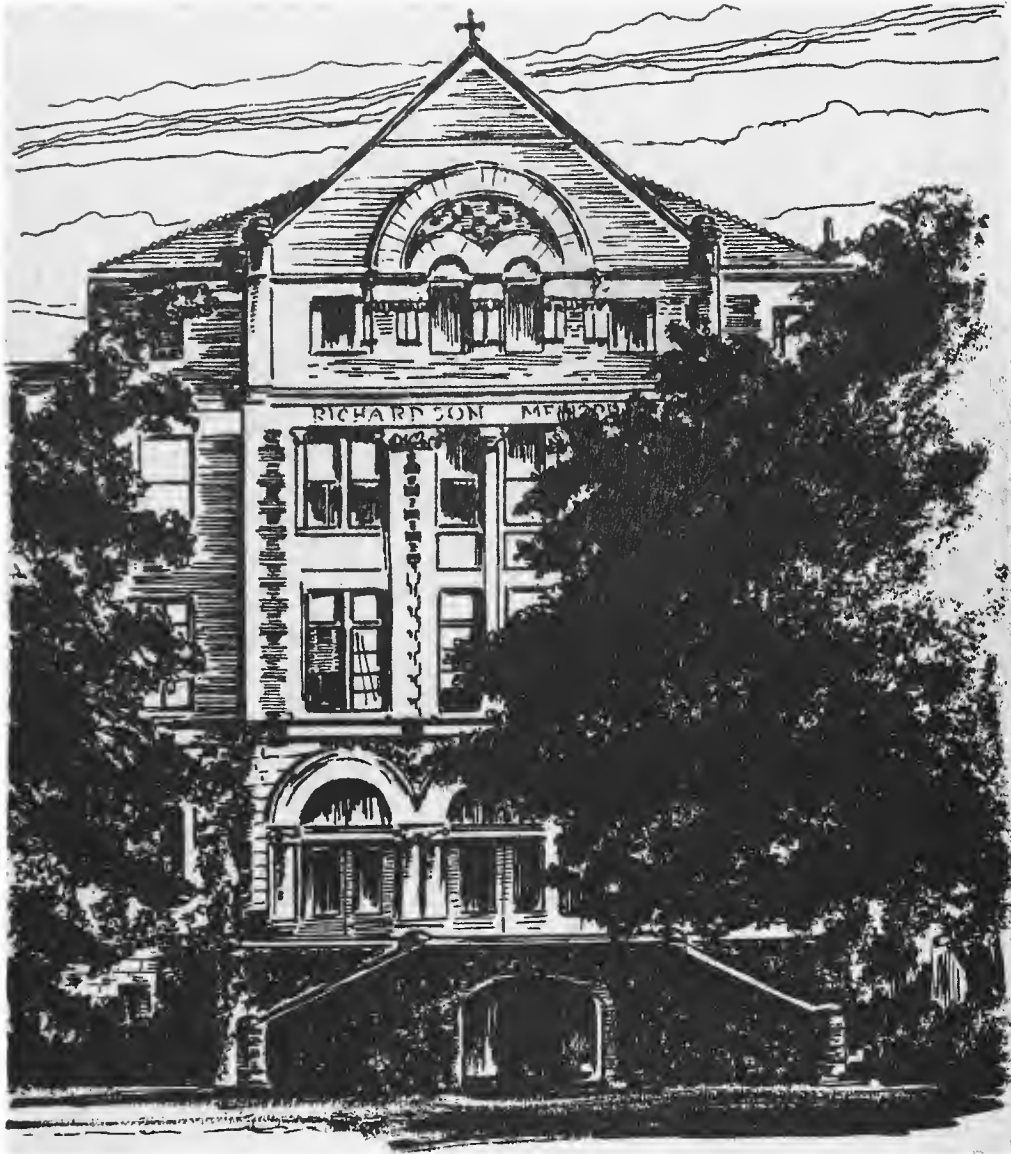

ADMINISTRATION

There is more to operating a good university than merely classroom instruction. Although the classroom is the basic part of Tulane, the rules by which the classrooms function, the buildings in which the classrooms are housed, and the students who partake of the classroom instruction are all the responsibility of the administration. Providing direction for our university is probably the hardest task of the administration; however, with such projects as the Tulane Forward Fund, the direction of our university is moving forward—with all deliberate speed.

ERIC ALBERT

● Administration Editor

Graduation day marks the culmination of four years of learning and teaching. It is first a tribute to the students themselves, but in another sense it is the proper memorial to the efforts of the faculty and administration.

TULANE'S

The Jambalaya, or "The Jamb" as it is affectionately called, is a pictorial chronicle of university student life; it is also a treasure-trove of nostalgia in the life of the alumnus.

The variety of extracurricular activities experienced by the students forms an interesting blend of American higher education, and nowhere is this melange reflected with more vitality than in the Yearbook.

Perhaps the greatest reward that we receive from a college or university "Annual" is its emphasis on the individual. Each student plays his part in the Yearbook: his or her personality, special interests, and achievements are, in part, recorded. Perhaps some day, the social scientist, with the aid of the computer, may find The Jambalaya and other college yearbooks a useful study index to suggest what society may expect of the product of higher education in each generation!

We have grown accustomed to high standards in The Jambalaya. Over the years, its editors have consistently done a good job without yielding to a pattern of uniformity. They have exercised imagination, sensitivity to good taste, and a mature responsibility to duty, and I know that these same guide lines will make the current issue of The Jambalaya another inspiring example of the best in student effort at Tulane.

DIVISION OF STUDENT LIFE

The administration of the particulars of campus life, of the personal growth of each student, is directed and supervised by the Division of Student Life and its staff. It is through the efforts of the various departments and divisions of this branch of the Administration that Tulane students receive counsel, information, advice and guidance.

The aim of the Student Program is three-fold, for it seeks to give the student an opportunity to complement his formal studies with social and cultural growth, to give him opportunities to develop his interests and appreciations through companionship, and to help make his college year enjoyable, both in actuality, and as a memory that will remain with him throughout his life.

The Orientation program at the beginning of the year strives to acquaint new students with Tulane, and to assist them in making the transition from reliance on others to reliance on self. The University Center, in all its many aspects, offers the student recreation, both intellectual and otherwise, while at the same time providing him with meeting-rooms, and many activities. Every phase of the University as it directly concerns the student can be traced to one or another of the branches of the Division of Student Life.

White, Secretary to the Dean of Students.

TULANE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Tulane Alumni Association was incorporated in 1898, dedicated to the broad principles of loyalty and service to the University and its alumni. During the past sixty-seven years it has grown into a world-wide organization of more than 37,000 members living in the fifty states and in sixty foreign countries.

The Alumni Fund, now in its nineteenth year, has been of great significance to the University. The Association's contributions to higher education have been equally important.

Alumni are active in assisting in admissions. The annual Tulane conferences, presented by the Association and Alumni Clubs, bring to many Southern cities programs in the specialized fields of science, the humanities, law, medicine, engineering, social work, and others.

Other activities include Homecoming, reunions, and the principal publication for the alumni, THE TULANIAN, sent to all alumni without charge.

Miss Beatrice M. Field, Director of the Tulane Alumni Association

Alumni President Woolen H. Walshe presents Tulane plaque to John C. Hodges.

Alumni President crowns the 1964 Homecoming Queen.

NEWCOMB ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Newcomb Alumnae Association is composed of all students who have attended Newcomb College whether or not they graduated from the school. The Association has grown to over ninety-two hundred members scattered throughout the United States. The alumnae office, in the Tulane Alumni House, keeps up-to-date files on the addresses of all former students.

The association holds two annual meetings, one at Homecoming in the fall, and the other at Commencement in the spring. The Alumnae Association Clubs are located in various major cities across the country and promote interest in Newcomb College.

The growth of the Newcomb Alumnae Association has paralleled the expansion of the College itself and now co-ordinates its various activities with other University-wide organizations such as the Student Council and the Tulane Alumni Association.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE — Margaret Saetre, President of the University Center Board; Tom Ries, President; Patty Heatherly, Secretary; and Mike Vise, Vice-president.

TULANE STUDENT COUNCIL

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN—Pat Alverson, Academic Affairs; Buck Landry, Alumni Relations; Ed Myrick, Elections; Sidney Steiner, Community Relations; and Corky Steiner, Special Projects.

The voice of the student body and the controlling influence in many student affairs at Tulane and Newcomb is the Tulane Student Council. The Council is headed by a five-man executive committee which is chaired by Council President Tom Ries, a Tulane senior. Mike Vise, Vice-President, Patty Heatherly, Secretary-Treasurer, Fleet Joiner, Representative-at-Large, and Margaret Saetre, University Center Board President compose the remainder of the executive committee.

This year the Council established five new permanent committees to widen and intensify its scope of activity. Sidney Steiner headed the new Community Relations Committee. Among its main duties, the committee is host to the visiting V.I.P.'s to Tulane. The Academic Affairs Committee, chaired by Pat Alverson, laid the groundwork for a permanent tutorial society gratis to Tulane students. The group also worked toward a compilation of past examinations and tests.

The important Alumni Relations Committee was headed this year by Buck Landry. The Committee sponsored Tulane get-togethers in six large cities across the country last summer to entertain high school seniors interested in Tulane.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Special Projects Committee included among its enterprises the establishment of several new campus phones around the University. They were also instrumental in providing the new photo I.D. cards for the student body. The group was chaired by Corky Steiner.

A major accomplishment of the S.C. this year was the Administration's approval of a separate budget for the Council. The budget will give financial independence to the legislative group and will be drawn from student tuition fees.

The budget was given approval by over seventy percent of the student body in a referendum, allowing the proposal to go into effect next fall. This new source of revenue will allow the Council greater freedom and make it an even more effective voice of the University.

Mr. J. P. Lofink, Civil Service Representative, discusses a Student Council Job Opportunities Program scheduled for next fall with Teel Salaun, Russ Herman, Howie Freedman, and Tom Ries.

Debates between the Student Council candidates heighten interest in elections.

COSMOPOLITAN

SUSAN RING, Chairman

The Cosmopolitan Committee is the University Center contact group with the International Students. Through its various functions ranging in scope from the swimming parties, Christmas dance, and International Days to the Travelogue Series of slides from foreign countries, the Committee attempts to acquaint the foreign students with the American way of life and to familiarize the American students with the various aspects of international life.

FINE ARTS

GINGER GUMA, Chairman

Events which add a cultural flavor to the University Center program in the fields of film, literature, and the arts are presented by the Fine Arts Committee. Throughout the year it sponsors events such as the Fine Arts Film Series which features films from comedy to ballet. The committee also brings varied art displays to the campus which are shown on the mezzanine of the University Center.

HOSPITALITY

MARY CAY HARWELL, Chairman

To the Hospitality Committee belongs the responsibility of making the students and visitors on campus feel at ease and welcome. The members, who are the student host and hostesses, try to accomplish this by providing receptions and tours of the University for the visitors. For all members of the University family, Hospitality sponsors "Caffeine Capers," a weekly coffee with informal entertainment. Before each holiday they put up a travel map to help students obtain either rides or riders home. Another service of Hospitality is ushering for events sponsored by the other committees within the program.

LAGNIAPPES

MIKE ROTHSCHILD, Chairman

Lagniappes is a Creole word meaning "a little extra." The purpose of the Lagniappes Committee is to offer this "little extra" to the student in the form of dances and spirit rallies. They sponsor the Orientation dance at the beginning of the year, the Homecoming dance, Campus Lover dance, and Spring Weekend with its many varied activities. For those who would like to attend these dances but can't dance, the committee members have organized dancing classes in which the members themselves teach the latest dances.

LYCEUM

HOWARD FREEDMAN, Chairman

The Lyceum Committee's function is to provide Tulane and Newcomb students with "big name" speakers on current issues, present outstanding faculty lecturers, and to act as a sounding board for the expression of student opinion on the topics of the day. In the past the committee has sponsored forums on University and world problems as well as small discussion groups on controversial, philosophical, and generally challenging subjects.

MUSIC

MARIAN WADLER, Chairman

The Music Committee schedules all major musical events sponsored by the University Center. Such events as concerts by Ray Charles, the Niños Cantores de Monterey, Carlos Montoya, and Marian Anderson have been presented by the Music Committee. Another primary function of the committee is the planning and control of the two music listening rooms on the University Center mezzanine. Committee members instruct students in the use and care of these stereo and monaural machines.

PADOHAD

MARGARET NOBLE, Chairman

The function of the PADOHAD Committee was originally a two-fold one: that of the Preservation And Developmet Of Hobbies And Decorations. However, through the years this committee has come to concentrate all its activities in the field of decorations. The artistic committee members decorate the University Center for the different school seasons—Orientation, Football, Christmas, Dead Week, Mardi Gras, etc. PADOHAD also works closely with the other committees to plan and construct decorations for events sponsored by these groups.

PERSONNEL AND EVALUATIONS

MARY HELEN YOUNG, Chairman

The Personnel and Evaluation Committee maintains the personnel records of all members in the University Center Program. The bulk of this committee's duties lies in working toward unification of the various committees, the recognizing of outstanding persons in the program, and the elimination of inactive committee personnel. In addition to this phase of the committee's activity, evaluation of Program sponsored events and subsequent recommendations to the University Center Board are handled through this committee.

PUBLICITY

NORM SILBER, Chairman

No program, however well-planned or executed, can be a success unless students and faculty are fully informed. It is the function of the Publicity Committee to publicize University Center activities. The committee uses all possible forms of publicity, including newspaper articles for campus and city papers, posters, banners, leaflets, and fliers. Representatives from Publicity are appointed to other University Center groups to cover the publicity for their events during the year. From suggestions made by the sponsoring committee, the Publicity Committee plans and helps execute the publicity campaign for the event.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

ALAN LEVAN, Chairman

The Public Relations Committee is the image-building group in the University Center Program. Among the functions of this committee is the maintenance of the University Center Scrapbook, the promotion of better relations with other schools and universities throughout the country, and the establishment of contacts with the hometown newspapers of students outstanding in the University Center Program.

RECREATION

LUKE EHRENSING, Chairman

The Recreation Committee, as its name implies, has as its primary function to provide all types of recreational activities for Tulane students. This committee handles annual tournaments in billiards, bowling, tennis, chess, bridge, and other sports. The sponsoring of vacation trips and tours is a further function of Recreation Committee. In addition to its activities on the Tulane campus, this committee sponsors delegates to the Regional Association of College Unions tournaments and contests.

SPOTLIGHTERS

NORRIS LUPO, Chairman

The main function of Spotlighters is to search for student, faculty, and big name talent and bring it to the attention of the Tulane student body. Spotlighters is active in the presentation of various entertainment events such as a freshman talent show, campus-wide talent show, the orientation week style show, and outstanding entertainment in the non-musical field such as the Smothers Brothers and Bob Hope.

Homecoming Weekend at Tulane is a time of celebration, from the opening Barrister's Ball and Alumni Dance Friday night, to the football game Saturday afternoon, and finally to the crescendo of the Homecoming dance Saturday night. Returning alumni find an air of hospitality and conviviality which takes them back to the "good old days" when they spent their college days in New Orleans. Excitement reigns as these fall festivities provide a welcomed weekend of relaxation and fun, a continuing tradition and element of continuity in an ever-changing school. ORGANIZATIONS

Activity with a purpose is the motto of Tulane's organizations. At our university one does not find overactivity or inactivity; however, one does find activity. The projects of the organizations provide the individual with a useful outlet for his particular interests during his college career. The facilities and events that are offered to the individuals by Tulane organizations greatly increase the university experience.

ALPHA SIGMA LAMBDA

The national honorary scholarship fraternity of university evening colleges, Alpha Sigma Lambda, selects its members for distinguished scholarship and leadership. In addition, the members must carry at least fifteen semester hours in subjects outside their major field. Theta Chapter, organized at Tulane in 1954, revised its original constitution in 1957 to comply with the provisions of the national convention.

SIGMA XI

Founded at Cornell University in 1896, and established at Tulane in 1934, the Society of the Sigma Xi recognizes outstanding achievement in scientific research, proficiency and promise in various fields of science. Eligible for membership are undergraduates, graduate students, members of the faculty and research workers. The society sponsors a series of public lectures and awards prizes for research papers.

PHI ETA SIGMA

Phi Eta Sigma, national honor society for freshman men, was established at Tulane in 1954. A 3.5 average or better for the first semester or for the freshman year is the requirement for membership.

ALPHA EPSILON DELTA

The Louisiana Delta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta, a national honor society for pre-medical students, was officially installed at Tulane in 1958.

The purpose of the society is to encourage excellence in pre-medical scholarship; to stimulate an appreciation of the importance of pre-medical education in the study of medicine; to promote cooperation and contacts between medical and pre-medical students and educators in developing an adequate program of pre-medical education; and to bind together similarly interested students.

SIGMA PI SIGMA

The honor society for students majoring in physics, Sigma Pi Sigma, was founded at Davidson College in 1921. Juniors, seniors, and graduate students are eligible for membership. The Tulane Chapter was established in 1950.

MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board is a national senior honorary society for women. Alpha Sigma Sigma Chapter was installed by Newcomb in 1958. Mortar Board handles the planning, organizing and supervising of the Freshman Orientation Program, the directing of the Freshman government, participating in the Advisory System, and serving as hostesses at University functions. Members are elected on the basis of superior scholarship, outstanding participation in student activities, and unselfish service to the school.

At the last Newcomb Student Body Meeting of the year, freshman girls who are outstanding in leadership, service, scholarship and school spirit are tapped for Assets, honorary sophomore organization. The new members are elected each year by the outgoing members.

The Assets wear white dresses to act as ushers during the year at numerous school functions including the May Day festivities. During fall orientation they are Big Sisters to incoming freshmen.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honor society for men, recognizes and honors those students, members of the faculty and others who have demonstrated leadership in extra-curricular activities and service to Tulane University. Student members must have attained at least junior standing, possess a high standard of character, and have achieved noteworthy recognition in two more of the following fields: scholarship; athletics; social and religious affairs; publications; speech, music and other arts.

WHO'S WHO

The students recognized in Who's Who each year are nominated from approximately 600 colleges and universities. Campus nominating committees are instructed, in making decisions, to consider the student's scholarship, his cooperation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities; his service and citizenship to the school; and his promise of future usefulness. Recognition by Who's Who means that the student was officially recommended from the university or college he attends and then accepted by the organization.

SCHOLARS AND FELLOWS

The Tulane Scholars and Fellows Program was inaugurated in 1962 for superior students in the College of Arts and Sciences and in Newcomb College. The program arranges special academic counselling to assist the student in co-ordinating his schedule to adapt the University offerings for superior students to his own abilities, objectives and needs. Basically, participation in the program provides an opportunity for academic advancement and recognition through a carefully planned program of honors courses, independent studies, and other special instructional possibilities not normally available to other students.

JAMBALAYA

Each year the JAMBALAYA office fills with sincere and dedicated students whose chief goal is to uphold tradition by seeing that the yearbook fails to meet its deadline. Under the astute and meticulous guidance of Bill Pitts, the JAMB succeeded in this plan for the seventieth consecutive year.

The fabulous achievement of the superlative book through which you now thumb cannot be limited merely to its Editor. Business manager Norm Silber earned heaps of money from the Advertisements without appearing in his office . . . except for his picture. Assistant Editors Phillip Long and John Fullilove offered their vast experience when not involved with certain Pi Phis or elections. Mary Miller did lots of organizing between basketball games, as did Zuma Lee Gribben. Our society princess, Miss Lynne Farwell, covered the year's social scene with her customary whirl and aplomb. Jamie Connor showed his athletic prowess in the Sports Section. The Fraternities and Sororities have Jim Saalfeld and Karen Deener to thank for any mistakes they might find. John Bennet Waters directed the photographers while Keith Kleespies created his own artistry. The moral support of the Misses Murray Maught and Mary Brown bolstered spirits during moments of despair, but through it all, the JAMBALAYA became a reality, a pictorial exposé of 1965 at Tulane.

HULLABALOO

The Hullabaloo this year again proved to be the shining light of information on the Tulane campus. Led by its fiery editor, Teel Salaun, the student newspaper completely disregarded the belief that a newspaper could mold the opinion of the public—partly because the Hullabaloo had no public. Undaunted, however, Teel and her wayward bunch of compatriots put out a paper every school week.

Barry Jacobs divided his time between the race track and a small country and western music bar named Acy's Hoe Down. Bubbly Nancy Bernard barely found time for the Hullabaloo between sailing excursions and boyfriends. John Musser did an excellent job of plagiarizing the news service copy and Clark Rowley spent half his waking hours covering the pickets at Phillips. Bonnie Kaplan kept muttering "While you're up, get me a Grant." Erica Metz found it hard to decide whether she wanted to write about football, basketball, or baseball players. Andrea Vogel was too cooperative to be real.

Tommy Tucker amazed the staff and the campus by writing twenty consecutive columns which no one, including Tommy, understood or read. Eliot Levin attempted to be controversial in political columns and was so unsuccessful that he received not one nasty letter to the editor.

Keith Kleespies alternated between great cartoons in the paper and even greater cartoons which Teel would not allow in the paper. Through it all, Marshall Kragen, the business manager, remained known for the same reason as last year. He is still the only boy on campus with a phonograph in his car.

WTUL, one of the largest campus publications, is Tulane's own student-operated broadcast system. The station's operation is based upon the "carrier-current" system whereby all signals are transmitted through the University's power lines. With new programming and numerous technical improvements, WTUL is becoming an integral part of student life at Tulane. Its programming offers popular, standard, and classical music, along with regular newscasts. Special features include news commentaries such as "Depth" and the ever popular "Oldies but Goodies" shows.

Anything can happen at WTUL and it usually does.

Edited by Dr. Richard Schechner, the Tulane Drama Review is the largest and most influential theatre magazine in the United States; its reputation is international, and it has the largest circulation of any American quarterly. Among its contributors are practicing theatre people such as Elia Kazan, Gereldine Page, and Lee Strasberg. TDR prints many "special issues" devoted to one playwright or subject. According to Jacques Barzun (quoted in an article on TDR in Time), TDR "takes the theatre out of the realm of mere grease paint and glamor and into that of ideas and feeling. Aeschylus and Shaw would applaud."

LAW REVIEW

The Tulane Law Review, a professional legal journal, is published quarterly by students and faculty of the School of Law. It emphasizes the study of comparative law and contains articles by prominent members of the legal profession.

STUDENT DIRECTORY

The Student Directory is a necessary aid to the students, faculty, and staff. Published annually, the Directory contains useful information on full-time students along with a listing of University extensions and campus organizations.

SPIRIT

Eat 'um up, Greenies!

"Where ya at, ya muthas!"

Yea, Batman!

CHEERLEADERS

During the year there are eight enthusiastic faces which become a regular sight at all of the athletic events. These faces belong to the cheerleaders, the chief spirit promoters on the Tulane campus.

This year the cheerleaders accompanied the football team to five of the out of town games, cheering the Green Wave to victory at Vanderbilt. Emile from Pat O'Brien's was featured at a pep rally held in McAlister auditorium. Working with Greenbackers the Cheerleaders helped sponsor several out-door pep rallies and the bon fire. Besides cheering at the football and basketball games, the cheerleaders were there to send the team off and welcome them back.

Led by head cheerleader Johnny Johnson, the group plans pep rallies, bon fires, and other activities to boost the school spirit. Aiding Johnny are Susan Elliot, senior; Susan Gold, Tommy Greer, Judy Hull and Al King, sophomores; and Andie Ravinett and John Deming, freshmen.

"Damn, she's heavy for a little girl!"

"Ooh! Why don't they leave our poor boys alone?"

This is a helluva place to hold a dance.

"Yell people, we scored again."

One of the most important spirit organizations on the campus is the Greenbackers. This honorary organization of Greeks and Independents strives to promote spirit at Tulane. Not only do the members encourage the support of the athletic activities, but also of the academic activities of the school.

Each year the organization holds a "Sacrifice to the Gods" bon fire. This year they sponsored a shaker display of a green T on a white background for the LSU-Tulane football game. Other activities included a cheering section at the basketball games and a poll concerning the change in the Tulane mascot.

"Let's play taps for Batman."

PEP BAND

The Tulane Pep Band is the largest official unofficial instrumental music spirit organization of its kind on campus. The band is led by Ken Bohm, president and Vagn Hansen, vice president. To the cheers (and hisses) of thousands of wellwishers and spirited spectators, the Pep Band makes its infrequent appearances at pep rallies, sports events, and the stacks of the Howard-Tilton Memorial Library. For who else would dare march through the library? Or give a halftime show with only sixteen people?

Realizing the need of much-used machinery for adequate lubrication, the members are commonly observed at the establishments of various purveyors of spiritous lubricants, whetting their whistles, so to speak.

And so, trailing its press clippings behind it, the Pep Band roars merrily off into the stadium or the gym.

You know, they do kinda look like Mouseketeers.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

The Tulane University Concert Band performs at the Christmas Concert.

TULANE BAND

Under the leadership of director-composer John J. Morrissey, the Tulane University Band is considered to be one of the best concert bands in the South. The band draws its membership from all colleges of the university and has sixty members. The band provides entertainment for students and townspeople through several appearances during the year in which a wide variety of music is played.

The highlights of the year are the Christmas and Spring Concerts in which the brass ensemble and the woodwind ensemble are featured. At these concerts the band also premieres and features new works by John Morrissey.

Informality prevails at band rehearsals.

Assistant Director Jim Radcliffe leads the A Cappella Choir joined by the Newcomb Chorus.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The Tulane-Newcomb A Cappella Choir achieved such success on its tour to Mexico during the past few years that this year they were again able to give concerts in Texas and Mexico from January 28 to February 6. Miss Agatha Newitt made tour arrangements for the choir, which is conducted by Prof. John M. Kuypers.

In addition to its good will tour, the choir also made many appearances on campus, including participation in the two H. Sophie Newcomb Memorial Services, joining the Newcomb Chorus for "Christmas Night at Tulane," and Baccalaureate Services. In the fall the choir also sang Mozart's Confitebor and Tantum Ergo with the New Orleans Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra.

Prof. Kuypers leads the choir at Christmas Concert.

"Christmas Night at Tulane."

TULANIANS

Under the leadership of director Louis J. Berndt and president Carl Hanneman, the Tulanians have exemplified exuberance and fine music in all of their performances, on and off campus. The twenty Tulanians are accompanied by Mary Helen Young and feature soloists Peggy Hewett, Jimmy Long, and Gary Shapiro.

The Tulanians represented the University at a banquet for college placement officers at the Royal Orleans Hotel, sang for the Charity Hospital student nurses, participated in "Christmas Night at Tulane," and assisted Bob Hope in his show on campus. Their plans also included a television appearance on Channel 8. In April the Tulanians held their annual Spring Concert.

TULANE UNIVERSITY THEATRE

Members of the student body, faculty, and staff who have participated in two of the four major productions presented by Tulane's theater department comprise the Tulane University Theater.

The twenty-eighth season of TUT offered productions of plays by great international dramatists. The Misanthrope, Moliere's comic satire on the necessity of compromise in civilized society, was presented in October. In December the company presented Uncle Vanya, Checkhov's realistic drama of lethargy and despair. Shaw's witty dialogue between the powers of war and the Salvation Army, Major Barbara, was featured in March. In May Oh Dad, Poor Dad, a hilarious tragicomedy by a young American playwright, Arthur L. Kopit, was presented. These plays, as well as other minor productions, were produced in the arena or the playhouse theater.

The latest court gossip is exchanged between Alceste (Martin Arnaudet), Arsinoe (Renee Leon), and Clitandre (Gillette Elvgren) in The Misanthrope.

Prof. Serebyakov (James Swain), Marina (Sally Roberson), and Dr. Astrov (David Goldman) in Uncle Vanya.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PLAYERS

Tulane's chapter of the National Collegiate Players, an honorary theatrical fraternity was founded for the purpose of recognizing students and faculty who have achieved excellence in dramatic work.

The Tulane chapter follows highest national standards in electing to membership only those who have continually demonstrated excellence in their contributions to Tulane's theater.

ARTIST'S SERIES

Five performers, representing the fields of acting, music, and dancing, were presented during the 1964-65 Tulane Artist Series held at McAlister Auditorium on the Tulane University campus.

Basil Rathbone, star of stage, screen, and television opened the Tulane series October 13 with readings of selected passages from Shakespeare's plays in commemoration this year of the 400th anniversary of William Shakespeare's birth.

On November 16 Sylvia Zarembo, internationally known concert pianist and associate professor of music at Newcomb College, appeared with the New Orleans Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra conducted by Werner Torkanowsky.

Teresa, Spanish interpretive dancer, and her company of young Flamenco dancers were featured in a program of Spanish music, drama, and dance in March.

April brought Carlos Montoya, Spanish-born Flamenco guitarist, who is known for his ability to create as he recites.

On May 4 Shirley Verret, American opera and concert star and native of New Orleans, who was the first Negro to play "Carmen" at the Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow, appeared to complete a very successful artist series at Tulane.

FANTASTICKS

The Fantasticks, New York's longest running play, was presented in the Kendall Cram Room, December 4-7. It was the first production of a new experimental theater supported by the Spotlighters Committee of the University Center. Rivet Hedderal, a prominent person in New Orleans theater, and James Brown, Jr., a Tulane law student, encouraged formation of the theater because of a need of musical theater on campus.

The entire play, written by Harvey Schmidt and Tom Jones, was produced by Mark Schoenberg and starred James Brown, Jr. as Narrator and Gay Yellen as Luisa. Other members of the cast were John Barret as Matt; Albert Salzer and Patrick Hanneman as the Fathers; Hank Harnage as the Old Actor; Warren Hullinghorst as the Indian; and Barton Green as the Mute. Carol Sowell was the accompanist for the production.

The Narrator (Jim Brown) makes love to Luisa (Gay Yellen) and promises to take her into a world of parties and adventure as he sings "Round and Round."

The Fantasticks, based on a short story by Edmond Rostand, Les Romantiques, was a musical fantasy about two fathers who planned a marriage between their children. The fathers pretended to feud by building a wall between their houses and forbidding their children to associate.

When the children decided to marry, the fathers tore down the wall. But, "familiarity breeds contempt," and a real feud developed. The boy ran off to the world, the girl threatened to have an affair, and the fathers rebuilt the wall.

There was a bitter-sweet ending when the boy and girl met again after both had been hurt by their experiences. The wall remained as a symbol of the play's theme, "Without a hurt, the heart is hollow."

The Fathers (Al Salzer and Pat Hanneman) plan their psychological strategy in "Never Say No."

CAMPUS NITE PRESENTS 'DAMN YANKEES'

Instead of using an original script as in past years, the members of Campus Nite presented the rollicking Broadway musical Damn Yankees. All aspects of the production were handled by the students. It was a common sight, indeed, to see actors, actresses, singers and dancers with paint brushes in hand, working diligently on the numerous sets.

Damn Yankees tells the story of an avid Washington fan who would sell his soul to see the Senators win the pennant from the Yankees. The devil (Jack Grapes) transforms the fan into the world's greatest baseball player (Jimmy Long) who guides the Senators to a chance at the Pennant. When the player wants to return to his previous life, the seductive and beautiful witch Lola (Gay Yellen) helps him to do so against the wishes of the devil. The Washington Club emerges victorious, and the player is converted to his former self.

The production of a Broadway Musical presented numerous problems which were overcome with the constant hard work of the entire Campus Nite organization. The tremendous success of the show was due to the efforts of Al Salzer, director; Mary Helen Young, accompanist; Denny Blodgett, technical director; Margaret Noble, scenic designer; Louis Berndt, musical director; Mrs. Reba Herman and Mr. Einar Pedersen, advisors; and to the executive officers of Campus Nite '65—Gerald Springer, Leslie Behrman, David Klapper and Neil Levine.

"So doesn't every ball team stand like this?"

"My friends? I thought they were your friends!"

"So they aren't real, that doesn't make me any less of a person!"

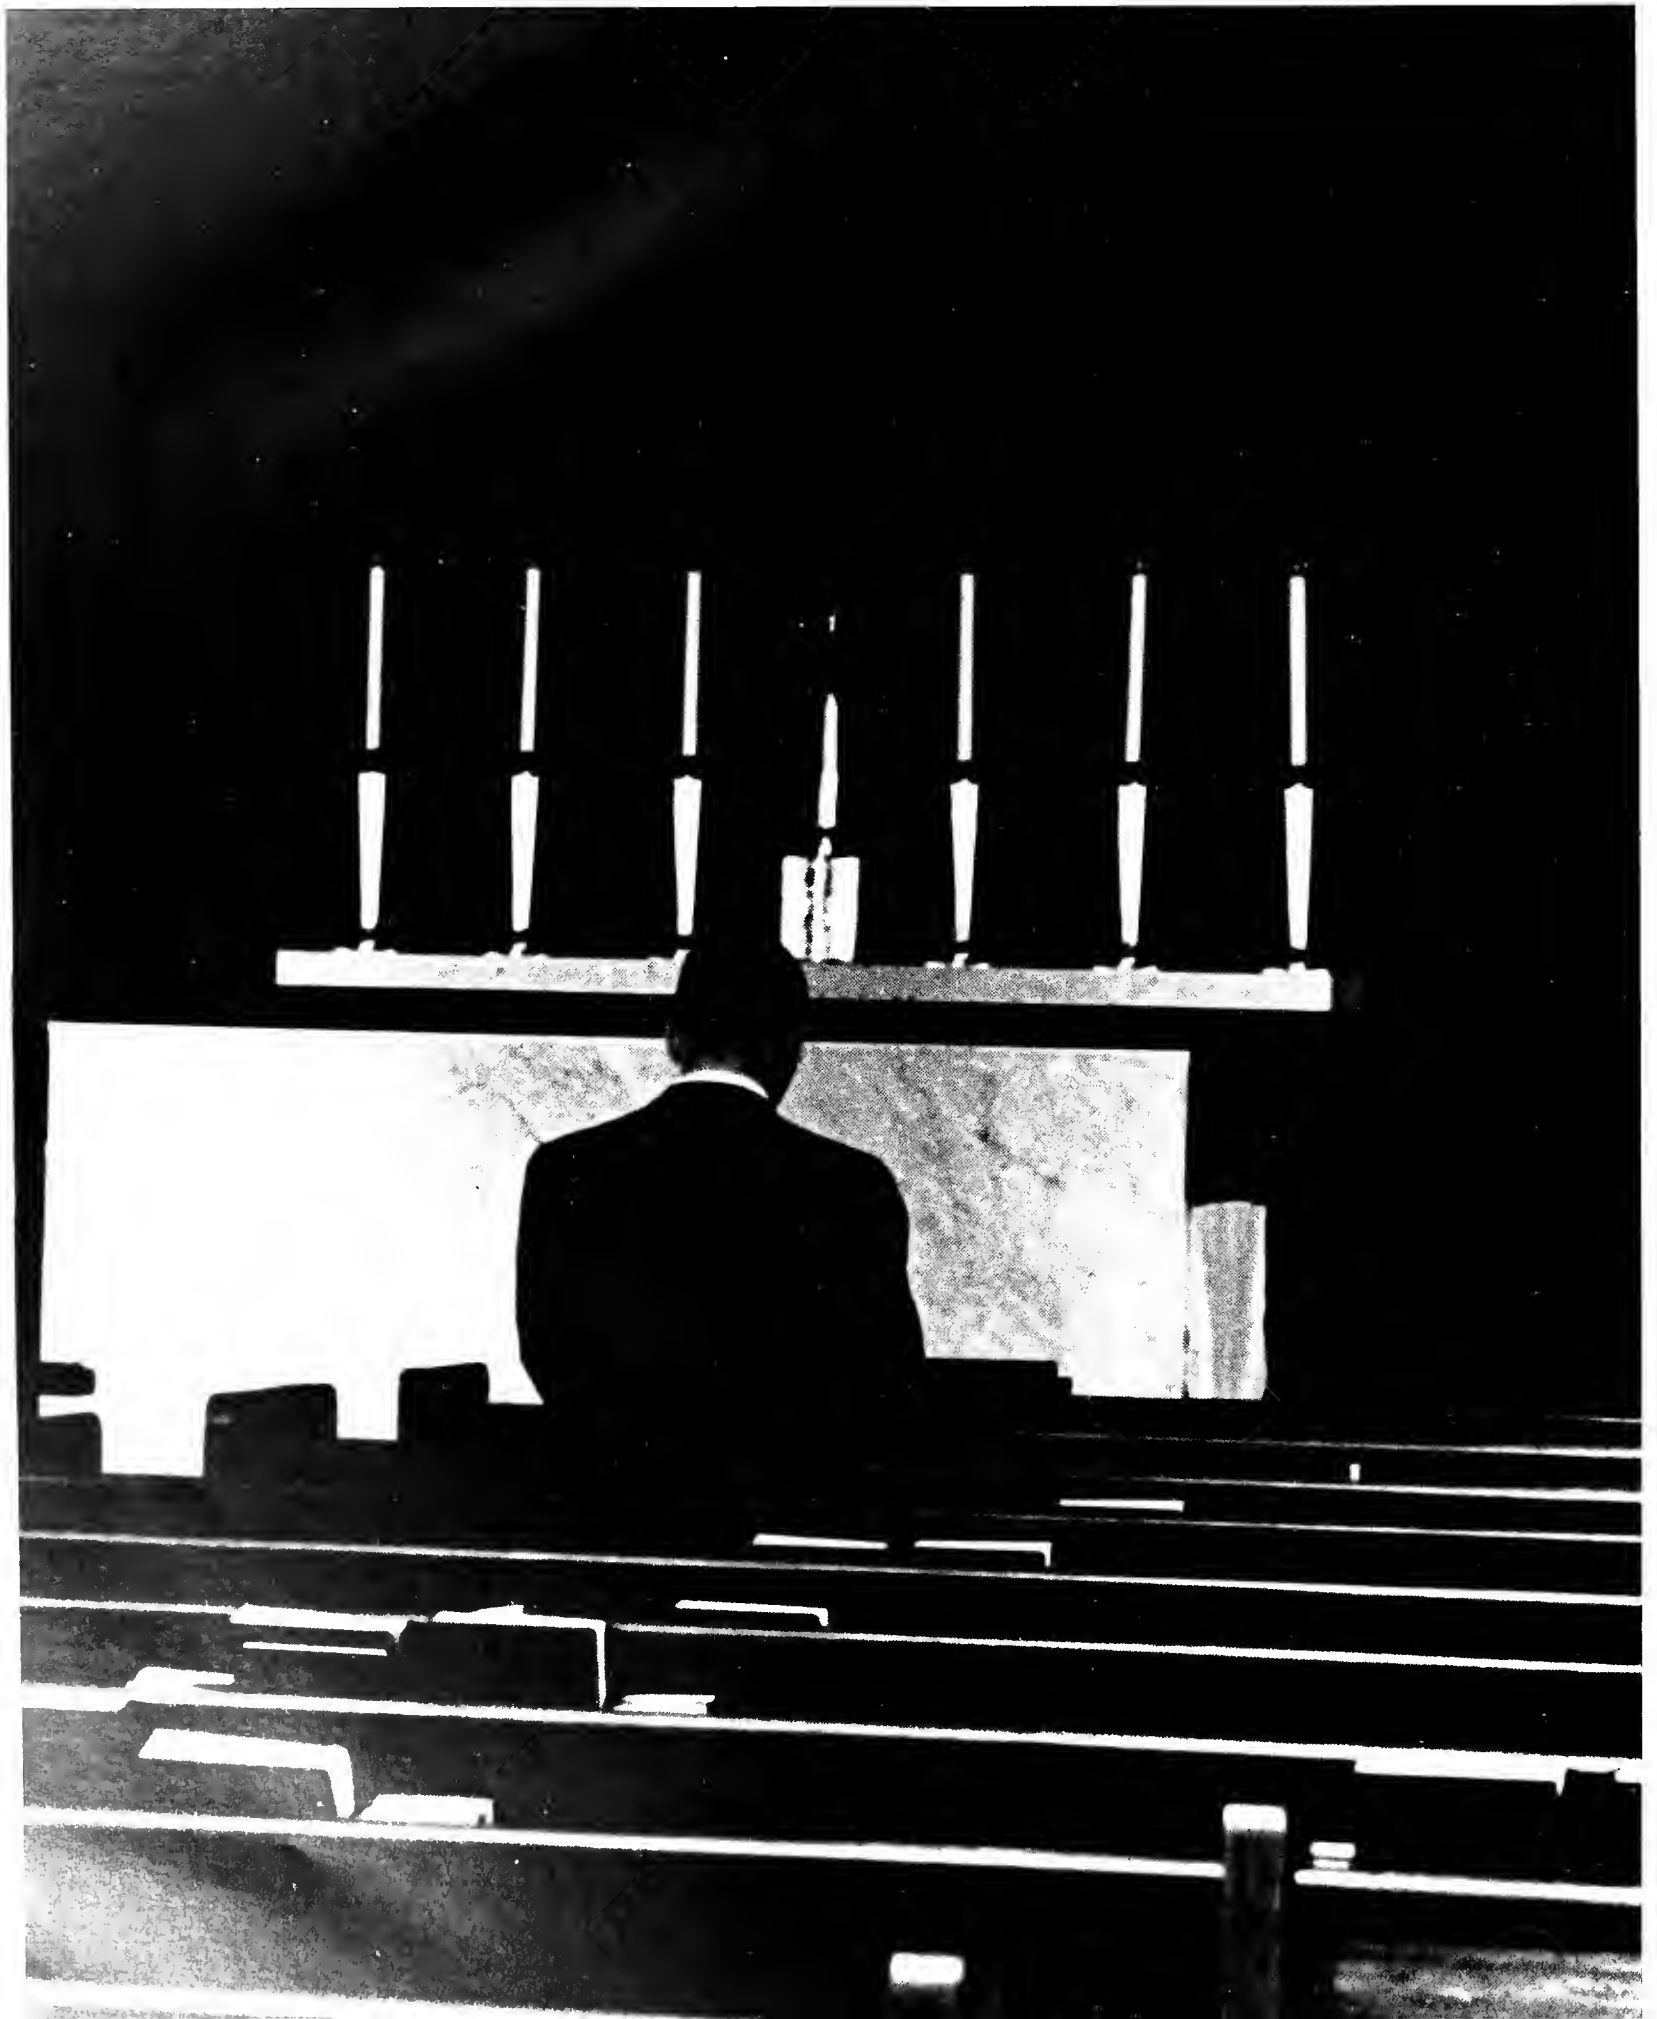

"But I'm just a Little League coach . . . "

" . . . okay, I'll throw the game."

RELIGIOUS

THE INTER-FAITH COUNCIL

The Inter-Faith Council of Tulane University is the official channel of communications between the recognized religious organizations of students at Tulane, and the University. It is composed of two representatives from each of the eleven organizations, and the presidents and the chaplains from the groups. Designed to carry out certain functions for the benefit of these groups and the University, it has proven to be the place for practical exchange of ideas and experiences in such areas as provision of accurate, adequate news coverage of the activities of the various groups; facilitation of cooperative endeavors of adult advisors and youth leaders in planning joint religious programs.

TULANE-NEWCOMB BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The religious organization for 400 Baptist students at Newcomb and Tulane is the Baptist Student Union. The purpose is to provide a place for the Christian to mature in his faith in the university community. Also this group is vitally connected with the churches in the university setting.

A student center is located two blocks from the campus at 7111 Freret. Such activities as worship services, seminars, discussion groups, and recreation are a part of the weekly program. A library made up of current theological literature gives the student and faculty member a chance to read about his faith. Mr. Sam Sanford is the director of the program for the Baptist Student Union. He not only leads in directing the program, but he also provides counseling opportunities for students as the need may occur.

THE CANTERBURY ORGANIZATION

The work of the Episcopal Church at Tulane-Newcomb is carried on through the Canterbury Association ministering to over 800 Episcopal students on the campus. The varied program is centered at the Chapel of the Holy Spirit and worship in the Chapel is the basis for all other activities. Students may serve as acolytes, lay readers, and altar guild members. In addition to the Chapel services, the Canterbury Association meets weekly for supper and a discussion period. Various social functions are planned throughout the year. The Chaplain is the Reverend W. Donald George. Officers for 1964-65 are John Bennet Waters, Senior Warden; Rodney Baine, Junior Warden; and Peggy Frishe, Secretary.

THE CHANNING CLUB

The Channing Club of the First Unitarian Church is open to students of all colleges in New Orleans who are interested in liberalism and freedom in religion. Lectures are often given and discussions on various topics are held when the group meets. The club is headed by Richard Kinman.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION

The Christian Science Organization at Tulane University was formed in December, 1943. Regular weekly testimonial meetings are held on the campus, and each year the Organization sponsors a lecture by an authorized member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. Students, faculty and all other members of the university community are welcome at the meetings and lectures.

The purposes of the Organization are to unite the Christian Scientists at Tulane-Newcomb in closer bonds of Christian fellowship and to afford the entire university the opportunity to learn the truth about Christian Science. Mr. Lucian Douglass is the advisor to the Organization, and the officers for 1964-65 are Betty Weaver, President; David Perlis, Vice President; and Karen Coci, Secretary-Treasurer.

THE HILLEL FOUNDATION

Hillel at Tulane-Newcomb is a unit of the National B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation. It is sponsored by B'nai B'rith, the oldest and largest Jewish service organization. Its aims are to provide Jewish students with an adequate and accurate knowledge of their Jewish faith, an appreciation of Jewish history and literature, and an understanding and full participation in all Inter-faith activities on campuses and college communities.

THE NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club, both the growth of an Idea and the answer to a Need, was established in 1893 at the University of Pennsylvania. The Tulane University and Newcomb College Chapter was founded as such in 1942 by decree of Archbishop Rummel. Since then the Newman Club has come to be recognized as one of the more active and influential organizations on the Tulane campus.

The threefold program of the Newman Club is as varied, attractive and inspiring as the zeal and resourcefulness of the student leaders who plan and carry it on. It is a religious, intellectual and social program.

THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

The primary purpose of the United Church of Christ Organization is to serve United Church Students in the development of religious faith in relationship to academic life. Periodically the group meets as a fellowship and inquiry group. Also in conjunction with the Inter-Faith Council, the group participates in many of the lecture series.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation is many things. It is an educational institution; it is a worshipping body of students and faculty; it is an organization within the university family. More than these, however, the Wesley Foundation is the Methodist Church on the university campus.

As to the activities of the Wesley Foundation, they provide Interest-Reflection groups, Study-Involvement groups, Wesley coffee hours, Morning Prayer Chapel Services, Evening Prayer Chapel Services, Sunday Morning Worship and Sunday Evening Wesley Forum.

Being connected with the National Methodist Student Movement and the National Student Christian Federation, the Wesley Foundation sends representatives to annual state and regional Methodist Student Movement conferences, and to quadrennial Methodist Student Movement and National Student Federation conferences.

THE WESTMINSTER FOUNDATION

The Westminster Fellowship is the campus organization of Presbyterian students. It seeks to guide and strengthen students in the Christian faith, and to show the relevance of Christianity to all of life. It emphasizes worship, discussion, instruction, leadership training, service, and fellowship. The Presbyterian Student Center is located adjacent to the campus at 1122 Broadway.

CLUBS

The function of the Student Chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers is to provide its members with a realistic view of the profession of chemical engineering. The organization invites guest speakers to give presentations on various professional topics, thereby enabling its members to gain first hand information concerning the problems and accomplishments of their future profession.

Each spring the various A. I. Ch. E. student chapters send representatives to the Student Southern Regional Convention. At these conventions the delegates gain an insight into the field of professional chemical engineering education at other institutions in the South.

The flying club is composed of members of the various R.O.T.C. units, Flight Indoctrination programs, and other civilian pilots around campus. To gain a better understanding of the principles behind modern flying techniques, field trips to various civil aeronautical facilities are made monthly. The club flies with Flight Inc. at Lakefront airport in Cessna 150's, 172's, and 210's. One must fly 10 hours minimum instructed flight before being given a student permit, after which time 30 hours of solo and dual mixed flying is made as an apprenticeship for passage of a final flight check. After passage of this check and a written exam, members are eligible for rental of any of the club's planes.

The Newcomb Athletic Council is composed of officers and representatives from all sororities and independent groups on campus. It supervises the planning of competitive sports, both team and individual. There are tournaments in volleyball, ping-pong, badminton, basketball, tennis, softball, and swimming. Points are awarded to the winners of these, and accumulate toward the Athletic Trophy which is awarded to the group with the highest number of points. Individual awards are given to the seven girls with the greatest points. The freshmen are divided into three teams which compete in the intra-mural events during the first semester. The Council also plans the annual Student-Faculty games in volleyball and softball, which are greatly enjoyed by both groups.

The aim of the Pre-medical Society is to bring together interested pre-medical students and introduce them to the many facets of modern medicine. The society helps fill a void in the undergraduate experience of the future physician which cannot be filled in any other way. These aims are accomplished through films, lectures, discussions, and field trips held approximately every two weeks on Tuesday nights.

Topics featured thus far this year include open-heart surgery by use of a heart-lung machine, the spread of cancer, venereal diseases, and medical school admission policies.

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS

Four of the Reserve Officer's Training Corps programs are offered to qualified students on the Tulane University campus: Air Force, Army, and the Navy which includes the Marine Corps in its department.

The purpose of ROTC is to familiarize the cadet with military life, to make him aware of its importance in civilian life, and to develop in him certain traits necessary for efficient military officer-ship.

Full completion of the four-year course results in the commissioning of the candidate as Second Lieutenant or its equivalent in the Reserve Corps of either the Air Force, Army, Navy, or Marines.

AIR FORCE

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade is comprised of elected members of the Air Force, Army, and Navy ROTC departments. These members become eligible for election through their outstanding dedication, participation, and proficiency in all phases of the military program.

The purpose of the Society is to correlate the three departments on the campus and to exemplify and demonstrate military excellence. Tulane's E Company, 8th Regiment, also attempts to present to the campus military information pertinent to the welfare of all students.

ANGEL FLIGHT

Relatively new on the Tulane University campus, The Angel Flight, sponsored by the Arnold Air Society, is an honorary service organization of selected Newcomb girls.

Founded originally at the University of Omaha, in 1952, the idea of the Flight quickly spread, and in 1959, during the 8th Annual Conclave of the Arnold Air Society, the Angel Flight became a national organization.

Tulane's Alvin Callender Squadron of the Angel Flight was established in 1962 with twenty-five charter members. It has assumed the responsibility of official hostess of the Air Force ROTC in all of the corps' University functions, and participates in various projects such as assisting in school elections, collecting for memorial funds, and regularly aiding the members of the AFROTC. In 1964, The Flight was nationally recognized.

ARMY

Under the guidance of Colonel Grady F. Rials, USA, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, and Cadet Colonel Corbett Penton, the Tulane unit of the Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps again enjoyed a successful year as a top ROTC unit.

The Army ROTC consists of a four-year program, leading to commissions in the United States Army and Army Reserve for those cadets who meet the strict but reasonable requirements. For the cadet who plans to make the Army his career as well as for the cadet who plans to serve only six months or two years, the ROTC program offers training in leadership and command which will benefit him in all endeavors in later life—civilian or military.

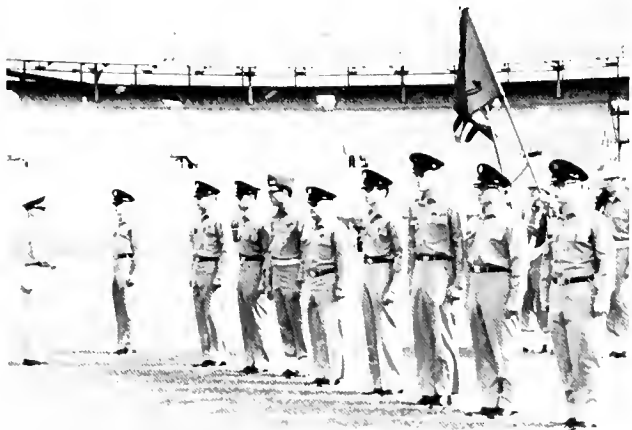

During his four years in the course, the cadet becomes fully acquainted with all aspects of the Army program. He learns drill procedures, wartime principles, military philosophy, and undertakes the responsibilities of Brigade leadership. At the end of the year, the juniors prepare for a rigorous training period at summer camp. The graduates, having left behind them four years of training, are ready to assume the responsibilities of their rank. Their preparation for positions in the defense systems of the United States has been the responsibility of the Tulane Army ROTC. It is now their duty to apply their training, just as it will be the responsibility of the officers who will be trained here at Tulane after them.

NAVY

For twenty-six years, the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit has been fulfilling its mission of supplementing the United States Naval Academy in providing officers for service in the Naval Service and Marine Corps.

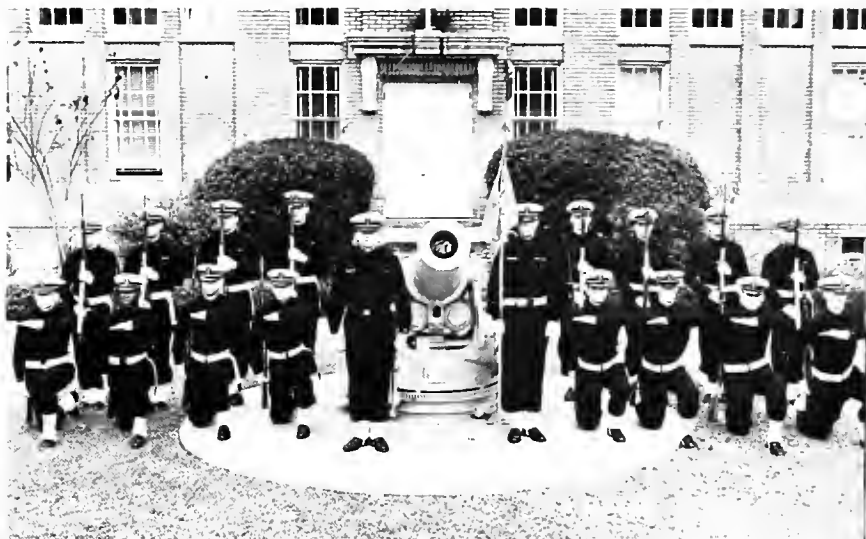

The year is begun at the "Welcome Aboard" Ball, which is one of the new cadets' introductions to Navy life on the campus. From then until the "Farewell" Ball in the Spring, honoring the graduating midshipmen, the Navy Middies participate in intense drills, and inspections, demanding academic courses, and a rugged development of character and leadership potential in an attempt to hold a full knowledge of the "Navy way."

Academic training for both programs, Regular and Contract, is supplemented by summer training cruises aboard Navy ships, and "on the job" training duties at Naval Bases and Marine Corps Schools. Throughout the year, the Navy is represented in intramural sports, Scabbard and Blade competitions, important posts on the campus, and many other Tulane University activities, showing that the Naval cadet is a well-rounded and active young man.

At the end of the four years of training, the midshipman is fully prepared to take his place among the officers of both the Naval Service and Marine Corps. Now, he not only knows the "Navy way," but he is an integral part of it.

AIR FORCE

The 320th Detachment exists for the purpose of training future officers for the United States Air Force's combined aero-space team.

The Basic Course during the first two years consists mainly of exercises in drill and leadership development. Also, courses such as the history of the Air Force, and warfare principles are taken.

The Advanced Course, for the qualified third and fourth year cadets, provides for more instruction and the opportunity of holding command positions. Summer Field Training at an Air Base affords a taste of military life, and Flight Instruction Programs enable pilot cadets to obtain their private flying licenses.

All time is not spent in professional studies, however. For instance, during the fall, Air Force had victories over Army and Navy in touch football. The group travels, too. This year they went to Homestead and Eglin Air Force Bases in Florida, and to Little Rock Air Force Base in Arkansas. In other areas, the Special Units are working to maintain Air Force's first place in Scabbard and Blade Competition. Social life abounds, also. Held during the year were a number of highly successful balls and cocktail parties. In addition, the Air Force surpassed the Army and Navy in enrollment this term, becoming Tulane's largest ROTC.

At the end of four years, the cadets are not only qualified to defend their country, they have a better understanding of it, and the organization which helps to defend it. In fact, the program has ceased to be just a "course;" it has become a way of life.

SPORTS

Intercollegiate sports is one of the elements which greatly contributes to life at Tulane. Our memories of football, basketball, and track are linked invariably with the crispness of the Autumn air, the roar of a crowd in a packed gymnasium, and the sound of a starter's gun. It is winning and it is losing. For those of us who watch and those of us who play, it is excitement and enjoyment.

POSSE BRIGHTENS SEASON

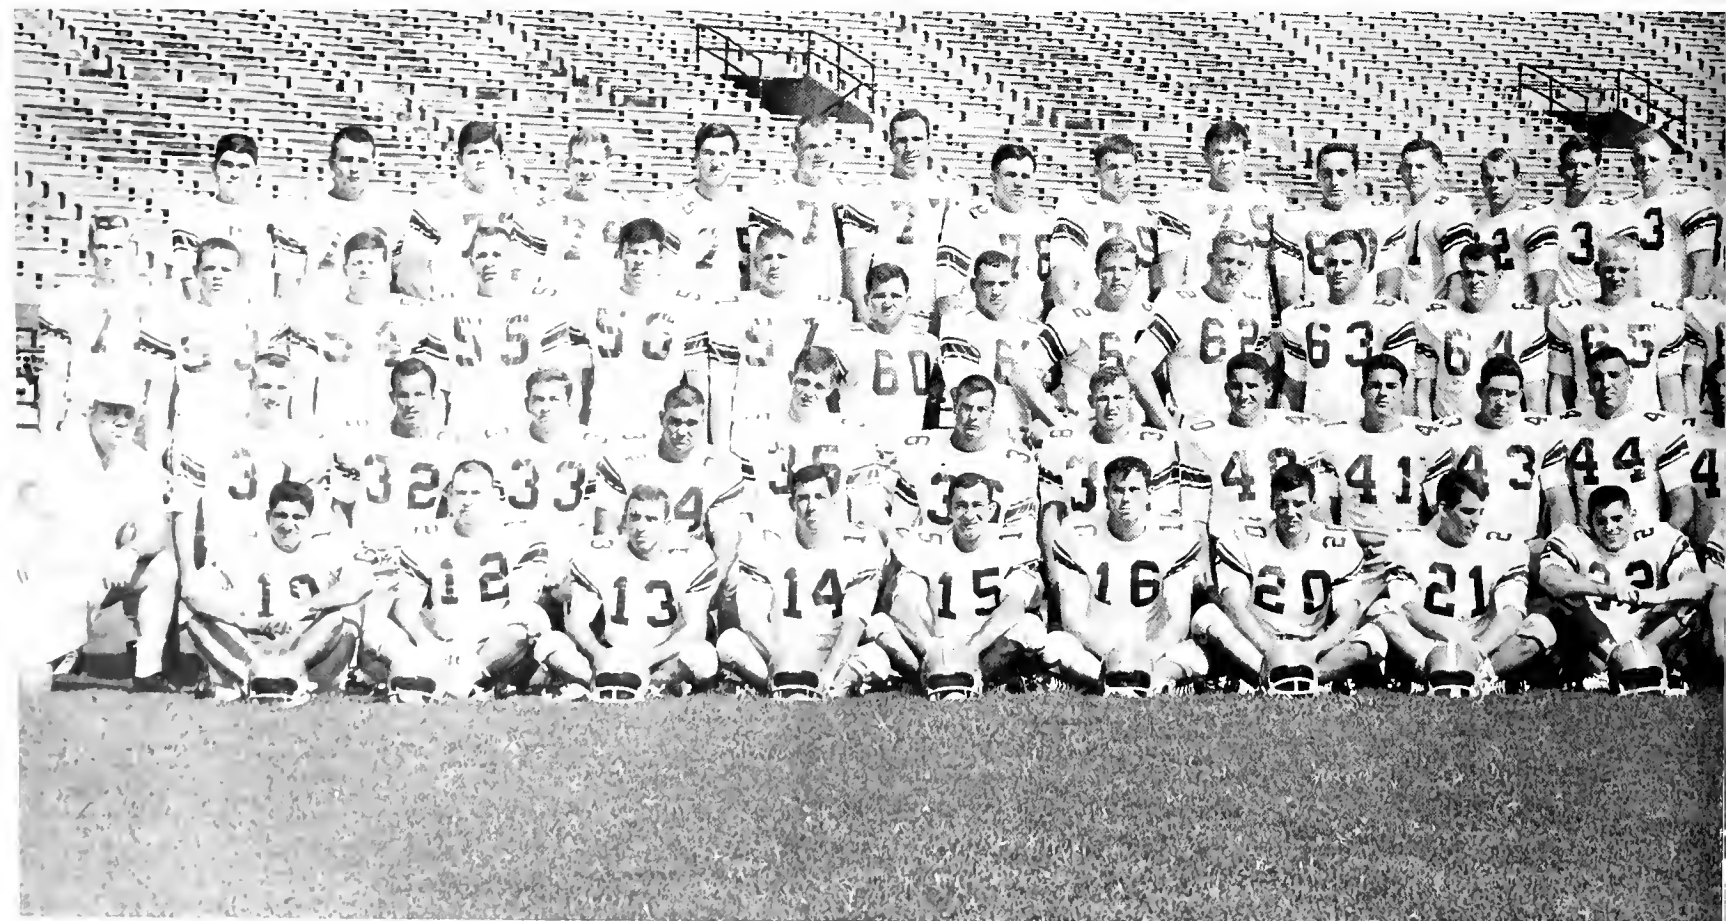

Tommy O'Boyle, Head Football Coach

The 1964 Tulane Green Wave under the capable direction of Coach Tommy O'Boyle made great strides forward in its effort to repair its position as a football power. Encountering one of the country's toughest schedules, Tulane met four bowl teams—Texas, Alabama, Ole Miss, and L.S.U.—during the season, and three of these teams were rated in the "top ten". The majority of the games were, nevertheless, close and with a few breaks the Greenies possibly could have had a winning season.

After the Alabama game, the Greenies' football fortunes definitely went on the upsurge with wins over V.M.I., Vandy, and Duke. The birth of the defensive unit, the "Posse," at this point was no coincidence; and it must be noted that, for the remainder of the season, defensive was Tulane's forte. The offensive unit, not to be outdone, christened itself the "Green Machine." This display of team morale and pride was also demonstrated on the field, causing Ole Miss's coach, Johnny Vaught, to claim that "This was the finest Tulane team in ten years."

With the loss of only eleven seniors and the return of many of the year's key players and forty freshmen, the entire university looks forward to the 1965 season with great anticipation.

In the season's opener, the Greenies ran head on into the red-hot Texas Longhorns and at the game's end found themselves at the short end of a 31-0 score. Texas, college football's defending national champion, extended its victory string to twelve with the easy victory. Taking the opening kickoff, the Longhorns moved 22 yards in 17 plays and five first downs to score in just a little over six minutes. The Green Wave never caught up. The Texans with a power-laden offense pushed across scores in every quarter. Tulane, making crucial mistakes, gifted their opponents with three fumbles and three intercepted passes. Some fancy passing by Tulane's quarterback David East, a Carthage, Texas product, yielded 13 completions out of 24 tries for the Green Wave's best offensive showing. Tulane managed to get the ball down to the Texas four yard line once but threw away the scoring opportunity with a fumble.

ALABAMA	36

It was "out of the frying pan and into the fire" for Tulane as Dixie's finest football team swamped the Greenies to the tune of 36-6. Clearly the best player on the field was Alabama's quarterback Joe Namath. Namath put on a one man show, scoring two touchdowns and passing for another. Tulane had trouble penetrating the tough Alabama defense and never moved into Tide territory until the fourth period when the Greenies drove 65 yards in seven plays for their only score. The first period was a defensive struggle which ended scoreless as both teams battled on even terms. The Tide finally scored in the second period with a field goal and a touchdown. After intermission Alabama, apparently fired up, took a 28-0 lead before East threw to sophomore end Lanis O'Steen for eight yards and a touchdown. East put on a dazzling display of passing accuracy as he hit on 11 out of 14 with O'Steen hauling in seven.

For a change it's nice to say, "The Greenies score again!"

Greenies here, Greenies there, Greenies, Greenies everywhere!

Tulane moved into its second conference game as the Wave traveled to Starkville. For the Greenies, it was a hard-luck game, one which except for the breaks could have gone either way. State scored all of its 17 points in the second quarter while holding the Wave scoreless. The Bulldogs went ahead 3-0 on a field goal early in the second quarter and the two teams appeared ready to settle down for a close defensive battle. Then Tulane reached a punting situation on its 29. On the fourth down East kicked deep into State territory but an official ruled that Tulane committed a personal foul at its 33. The referee stepped off a 15 yard penalty and handed the ball to State on downs at the 18 to set up the Bulldogs' first touchdown. Tulane's touchdown came early in the third quarter after a State punt into the wind was downed on their own 36. It took 13 plays before quarterback Mac Brousseau sneaked the final inches.

Oops! wrong turn.

Tulane treated its fans to an outstanding effort against the defending S.E.C. champs, the Ole Miss Rebels. David East sparked the Greenies by completing 13 of 32 aerials for 124 yards, including a 22-yarder to halfback Jerry Graves for the first Tulane touchdown against Ole Miss since 1960. Favorite targets for East were Lou Campomenosi, who caught four for 59 yards, Graves, O'Steen, and Butch Coco. George Cortez sparked the Greenies ground game with 75 yards in 12 carries. Meanwhile senior end Ron Krajewski and linebacker Dick Steigerwald sparked a rugged Wave defense which halted Rebel drives at the Tulane one, ten, and 19. Tulane went in front 3-0 in the second quarter on a 35 yard field goal by Don Bright. Ole Miss countered with two touchdowns before the half. Tulane moved 90 yards in the final quarter for its touchdown but East's pass for a two point conversion failed.

Lady Luck again refused to smile upon the Green Wave as the Georgia Tech Yellowjackets nipped the Greenies by a score of 7-6. Winless Tulane scored in the second period when Lanis O'Steen intercepted a pass and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. Bright's conversion attempt was blocked and the Greenies carried a 6-0 lead into halftime. On the first play of the second half Cortez fumbled on the Tulane 34, and in eight plays Tech drove for the winning touchdown. A successful conversion gave the Engineers a one point lead which they never surrendered. Tech was a 19 point favorite but the Greenie defense made a mockery of the odds. The nationally ranked Yellowjackets were held to nine first downs and a total offense of 147 yards. In the final quarter Tulane moved to the Tech 29 on a 25 yard pass to O'Steen and a 18 yard pass to Graves but an intercepted pass ended the final Greenie threat.

"Here come the Elephants!"

He's got it! He's got it! By George, I think he's got it!

Tulane turned in its poorest performance of the season thus far but still played good enough ball to completely outclass VMI before a homecoming crowd. Fullback George Smith was the Wave workhorse, grinding out 116 yards to become the game's leading rusher while sophomore Mike Findley was runner-up with 52 yards. In the first period Tulane drove 55 yards in 11 plays with Graves traveling the final three yards. Bright's extra point try was wide and Tulane led 6-0. Midway in the second stanza Jim Davis picked off a VMI aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Keydet 12. East scored from two yards out to end the first half scoring. The Wave received another break in the fourth quarter when Bill Goss pilfered a VMI pass and returned nine yards to the 16. Three plays later Brousseau passed to sophomore end Mike Steeves for the touchdown. VMI stormed back and scored in four plays. Tulane ended the scoring, marching 80 yards with sophomore Al Higgins going over from the two. Bright converted to make the final score 25-6.

East finds a gaping hole in the Tiger Line.

Fresh from a stirring homecoming win the Wave traveled to Miami, Florida but the orange and green Hurricanes brought the Greenies back to reality with a 21-0 shutout. The game was one of the Wave's poorest efforts after playing a definitely improved kickoff and marched 74 yards in 14 plays for the first touchdown. The Hurricanes countered again in the second period on a 53 yard drive highlighted by a circus catch in the end zone for the touchdown. A fourth quarter touchdown ended the scoring for Miami. The game counted as a Southeastern Conference appearance for Tulane because Georgia Tech dropped out of the league. East went to the air 14 times in the first half and completed nine but gained only 80 yards as Miami stopped every Wave thrust. Late in the first half Tulane drove to the Miami eight but four plays later Miami took over on the 20.

Tulane, in Vanderbilt territory only once during the game, converted that opportunity into a 7-2 victory for the Greenies' first Southeastern Conference win since 1961. The Commodores had three scoring chances in the first period but failed to capitalize on them due to the inspired play of the Tulane defensive unit, "The Posse," led by guard Leon Verriere. The Greenies were completely contained in their end of the playing field the entire first half and could never get the ball past their own 25. In the second half Vandy took a 2-0 lead on a safety but saw it disappear when halfback Cary Crowder put the Greenies on the scoreboard with a touchdown plunge after Tulane had recovered a fumble. Throughout the game Vandy was hampered by the tremendous punting of David East who average just under 45 yards a kick. George Smith was the game's leading rusher with 71 yards in 17 tries.

In the sixty-second meeting of Tulane and Louisiana State, the Tigers were forced to battle for their lives and at the game's end were lucky to crawl back to Baton Rouge with a 13-3 victory which was much closer than the score indicated. The Greenies recovered a fumble on the L.S.U. 20 in the first quarter and four plays later Don Bright kicked a 40-yard field goal to put the Wave ahead. For the remainder of the half the Posse kept the Sugar Bowl bound Tigers well in check, but with three seconds left in the half East, trying to run out the clock on the fourth down, was tackled on the Wave 12. The Tigers quickly called time out and proceeded to tie the score with a field goal. The Tigers scored again and then got their only touchdown in the fourth and final stanza.

Junior halfback Carl Crowder scored both touchdowns and Don Bright booted a record 53 yard field goal as Tulane recorded its first shutout victory in 41 games, blanking Duke's Blue Devils, 17-0. Crowder's first counter came with four minutes remaining in the first half after he took a punt at his 25 and returned 75 yards for a score. Crowder scored again midway in the final stanza on a two-yard run, capping a 26-yard drive set up by a fumble recovery by Leon Ver-riere. Later in the fourth period Bright kicked his record-breaking field goal, setting a Tulane record and tying a Southeastern Conference record. The Posse, led by Dick Steigerwald, Bob Genenz, All Higgins, and Ron Krajewski kept the Blue Devils at bay for the entire game. It was a sweet victory for the Wave and the first time since 1948 that Tulane closed out with a win.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Tulane's 1964 freshman team finished with a 0-3-1 record. Nevertheless, they successfully fulfilled their task of familiarizing the varsity with the opposition's offensive and defensive alignments. The Billow lost to Mexico Poly Tech 11-6 and then tied Mississippi Southern 6-6, in which Tulane scored on a 60 yard punt return by Lloyd Pye. The Frosh then lost to Alabama 13-6 and to L.S.U. 26-0, when the Baby Bengals tallied on four long touchdown passes. It will indeed be hard to evaluate the freshman players until they are forced to compete for positions with the already proven members of the varsity.

BASKETBALL

The 1964-65 basketball season was not one of tremendous success, however, it was one in which the Greenies showed great improvement over the previous season in which the Wave threatened to establish a new national record for consecutive losses. Probably the most significant factor in this year's season was the hiring of Head Coach Ralph Pedersen. The highly regarded former Tulane basketball star reported to his duties just five days before practice sessions opened. It took a while for the players to adjust to the new coach's methods and the Wave showed it by dropping all but one of its non-conference games. The Greenies started conference play in the same manner, losing its first five games and looking something less than mediocre in doing so. After the break for final exams the Greenies looked like a new team in beating Mississippi State. This improved play continued for the majority of the remaining games highlighted by a sixteen point victory over Ole Miss and a narrow three point loss to arch rival L.S.U.

The big gun for the Greenies this year was sophomore sensation Al Andrews. The Michigan native pumped in eighteen points a game, which was good enough for a second team berth on the All-Conference team.

1965-66 promises to be a good year for the Wave with only seniors Denny Shoup and George Fisher departing. The Greenies' starting five for the final game of the season—Andrews and O. J. LaCour at guard, John Schweers and Mike Mucklin at forwards, and Craig Spitzer at center—will return intact for the coming season. Help is expected from freshmen Mitch Urbanski, Dan Moeser, and Jim Howes who will ascend to the varsity from a freshman team which compiled a record of twelve wins and five losses including two wins over L.S.U.

The competition was keen for the 1965 tennis season as the Tulane netters sought to capture their twenty-first conference crown in 26 years. The defending conference champs are expected to be given strong competition at the conference tournament at Auburn from a much improved Mississippi State team.

Missing from the squad this year was only one netter of the 1964 team, Captain Dan Rhodes. Returning lettermen were Chuck Bleckinger, number one player on the 1964 team; Frank LaMothe, S.E.C. champion at number two; Bob Hardcastle, the number three singles champion; Ray Lake; Dave Moss; and Bill Banta. In addition to this, Richard Carter and Lee Kantrow, the S.E.C. Freshmen Doubles Champs, and Richard Peters moved up from the freshman team.

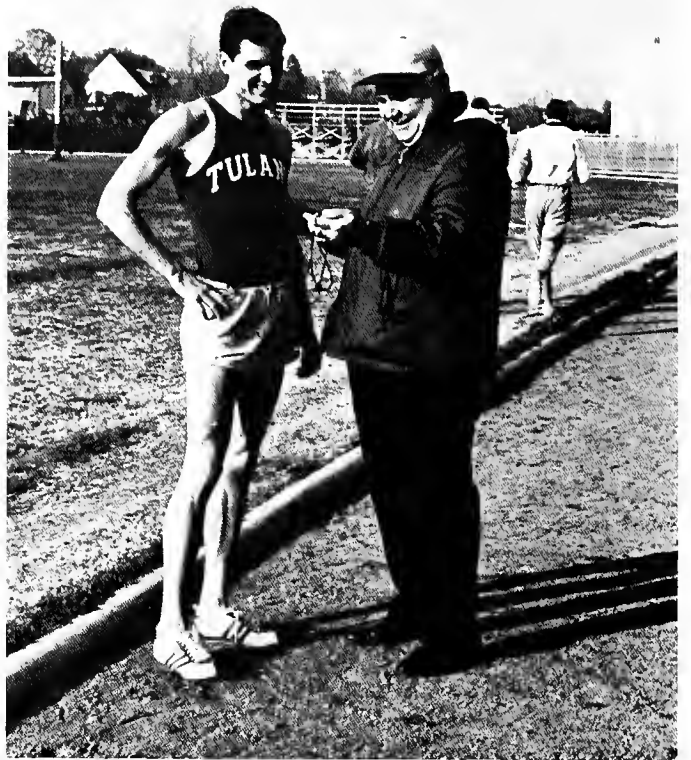

Coach Emmett Pare's home schedule consisted of Miami, Rice, Texas, and Northwestern. The Greenies journeyed on the road to Vanderbilt, Georgia Tech, and Mississippi State.

TRACK

Coach John Oelkers, one of the country's most eminent track authorities, expected the Greenie cindermen to come forward with their best season since his tenure began. Returning from last year's squad were some thirteen lettermen. Quartermiler Bill Shapiro, one of the nation's best, lent his talents along with those of Lou Kapicak, John Kenney, and David Crais to form the mile relay team which last year broke the school record. Junior Mike Arsuaga, a 23-foot broad jumper; sprinter James Conner; weightmen Ike Sorkin and Stann Kahn; hurdlers Mike Guerin and Bob Buras; and distance runners Harry Belin, Don Cobb, and Bill Kerwin are the other returning letter winners. In addition to this nucleus, miler Jim McAleer and weightman Erick Albert join the varsity after fine freshmen performances and distance man David Barr returns after a year's lay off.

BASEBALL

The 1965 Tulane baseball team, under the heading of Coach Ben Abadie, looked forward to an excellent season. Last year, after having gotten off to a tremendous start by winning their first eight games, the Greenies faltered, barely maintaining a winning season.

This year the Tulane attack was strengthened by the return of one of the South's strongest pitching staffs. Pitchers Dan Stevenson, Richie Schmidt, Lou Blanda, and Tom Adams were back for their final year of competition with Most Valuable Player Dennis Malpass again behind the plate. The Tulane infield was aided by the reappearance of lettermen Dave Flettrich, Dick Stephens, George Booker, and Ray Nord. The outfield was capably manned by Ken Korach, Jim McGill, Mike Roos, and Jim Crumley.

GOLF

This year's Green Wave linksmen, ably coached by Audubon golf Pro Innes Millar, promised to be a definite improvement over the past season. The team was headed by co-captains Ray Fontenot and senior Bob Frankel, the only senior on the team. Ample support was supplied by returning lettermen Hank Corder, Steve Bellaire, and Steve Abrams. Three new golfers were added: Larry Karter, Mike Flynn, and Rodney Baine. Having lost only two golfers from last season's team, graduated captain Bill Lee and JYA Wally Blessy, the Audubon knockers were expected to definitely improve on last year's four and five record. Off of such performances as their second place finish in the 1964 L.S.U. Invitational behind national champion Houston, the Greenie golfers proved themselves worthy of top flight competition. With three topnotch golfers and several promising sophomores and juniors, Tulane's golf team promised to come through with a winning season in 1965.

Coach Innes Millar gives Bob Frankel and Ray Fontenot some fine points on putting.

If you wait long enough, it might fall in.

SWIMMING

Coach Lowell Damonte's tankmen turned in their best performance in recent years as they swept to victories over Miami and Georgia Tech this season. The Greenies were led by sophomore sensations Larry Curran and Wayne Kehn in their assault on the record books. The Tulane swimmers, captained by Serpell Edwards and Dave Herold, were a young team this season but showed great improvement during the course of the campaign.

Other Greenie stars include Gwinn Murray in the butterfly, Robert Jourdan in the distance freestyles and diver Joel Martin. Doug Drumwright, Rick Bauer, Jon Tyson, Dave Eckhardt, and Bobby Katz comprise the remainder of the team.

SAILING

1964 was a highly successful year for the Tulane Sailing Team. The team qualified for the highly competitive North American Intercollegiate Dinghy Championships picked from a field of approximately 75 schools in North America. Tulane placed eighth in the championships, a very respectable showing considering that it was Tulane's first year in the national association.

Terry Anderlini and Pete Ware led Tulane to victories in the Baldwin Wood Regatta, the Windjammer Regatta (both in New Orleans), the Vanderbilt Invitational and the Triangular Regattas with L.S.U. and L.S.U.N.O. Pete Ware distinguished himself by leading the Southeastern Association to a third place finish in the North American Team Race Championships and has been chosen as 1965 Team Captain for this event. Terry Anderlini distinguished himself as an expert Finn and Dinghy skipper by placing second in the North American Intercollegiate Monotype Champs.

With both Terry and Pete sailing this spring the Tulane Sailing Team hopes to qualify for the North American Championships again this year to be held in June in Detroit.

Don't knock it—it's a buck cheaper than the causeway!

SOCCER

The Tulane Soccer team which originated in 1963, finished in the runner-up spot among the ten teams participating in the International Soccer League of New Orleans.

This year the soccer season was divided into two rounds. In the first semester session the Tulane Soccer team gained a very respectable standing among the nine teams participating with its record of 15 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie.

The Tulane Soccer team in competing for the second round championship stood a reasonable chance in attaining this goal according to Coach Kamal Zakhary. Soccer does not depend on weight or size nearly so much as on skill and physical fitness. There are eleven players on a team and three to five substitutions only. The team was rather cosmopolitan—its players representing such nations as the United States, Algeria, Brazil, Italy, France, Egypt, Uruguay, Venezuela, the Soviet Union, Jordan, Iran, Libya, and Syria.

For the students who do not participate in intercollegiate sports, Tulane provides an extensive program of intramural competition. The program offers activity in categories ranging from football to bridge.

The competition is probably keenest among members of the Pan-Hellenic or fraternity league, with individual performances sometimes comparable to that found in intercollegiate contests. The fraternity compiling the greatest number of points in overall competition wins the coveted Pan-Hellenic trophy.

Two other intramural leagues compete at Tulane. These are the all-university league, composed of teams from the colleges and R.O.T.C. units and the dormitory league, with students carrying the banners of their residence hall.

In the fall, competition is offered in touch football, swimming, volleyball, tennis, ping pong, golf, and squash.

The intramural activity in the spring consists of basketball, handball, pool, horseshoes, free throws, track, bridge, softball, golf, and squash doubles.

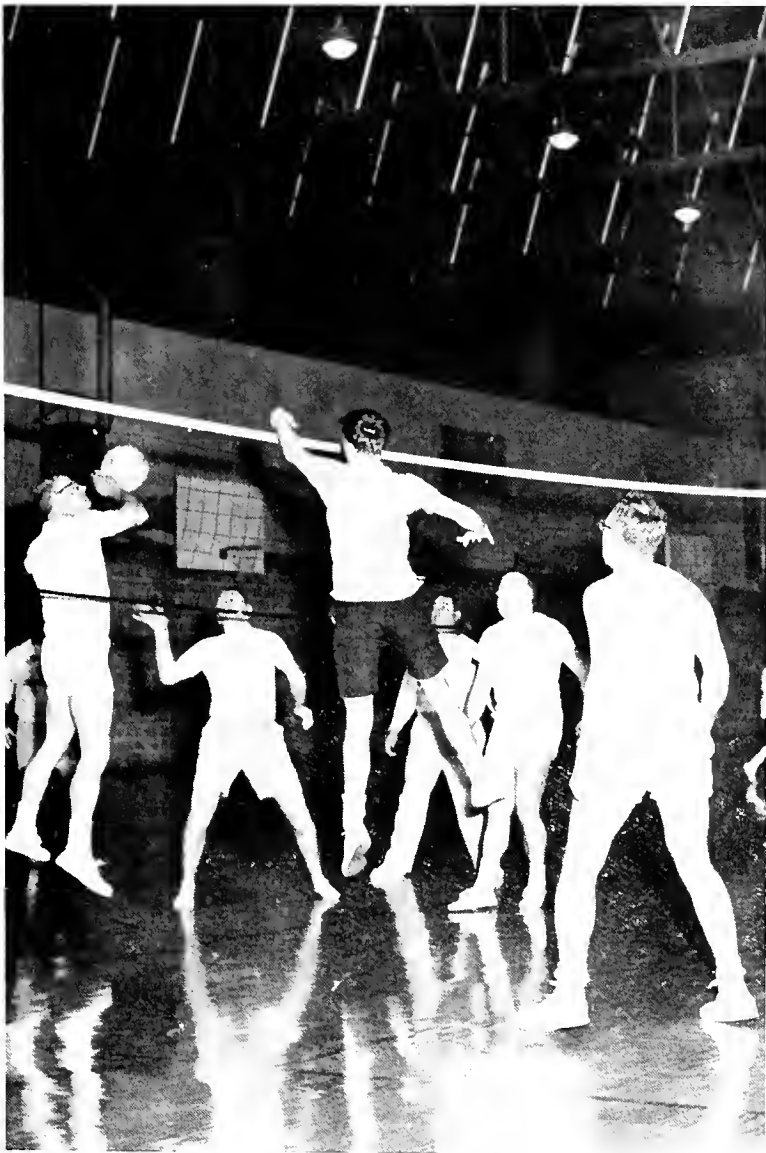

In the fall the entire student body is eligible to participate in an intramural tackle football game—the Sacchrin Bowl. The teams are coached by varsity football players and equipment is furnished by the Tulane Athletic Department.

This spring wrestling was added to the competition.

GREEKS

The gregarious nature of young people in college is an accepted element in our society. It is only natural for students to seek each other's companionship, friendship, and loyalty, for associations formed on campus are valuable additions to one's university experience. Greek-letter organizations—specifically fraternities and sororities—are a means to these associations. No devoted fraternity man will contend that his group and its associations are everything in his life, but he knows that the inclusion of a solid fraternal experience has made his life at Tulane more meaningful and more educational. There is more to college than study and clubs, for every collegiate, and especially the Tulanian, is possessed of a powerful social instinct, the desire to date and party.

NEWCOMB PAN-HELLENIC

Newcomb Pan-Hellenic, a member of the National Pan-Hellenic Conference, is composed of the three letter officers, the president of each of the sororities, and a representative of each sorority. The Pan-Hellenic Council compiles the rules which govern rushing, pledging, and initiation. The Council awards the Newcomb Pan-Hellenic Trophy each year to the group which has accumulated the most number of points for participation in campus activities and scholastic endeavors. Each year the Council presents the City Pan-Hellenic Trophy to the sorority with the highest scholastic rating.

Throughout the year the Council strives to promote a better relationship between the member groups and between the sororities and the University.

ALPHA DELTA PI

With increased organization and unification as their goals, the ADPi's opened the year with a Gulf Coast House-party. Having completed a successful rush, the sorority formally welcomed its pledges at a banquet held at the Bali Hai. Christmas celebrations included breakfast at Brennan's and a holiday tea. In addition to the bi-weekly lunches at the house, numerous parties were held in conjunction with various fraternities on campus. Climaxing all social events was the annual spring formal.

Active on campus were Frances French, Orientation Chairman; Ann Giriatis, Administrative Vice-President of the U.C. Board; Lucille Schonacher, treasurer of Phi Chi Theta; and Erica Metz, member of Assets. In the military ADPi was well represented by Army sponsors Jane Clark and Joanne Selikoff, Air Force Sponsor Suzanne Kenner, and Mebane Millender, member of Angel Flight. ADPi's ranked scholastically too, as shown by Chi Beta members Ellen Blownstine and Alma Chasez, Sharon Manley, Erica Metz.

This is the best formal we've had in years.

The patter of little feats which gives the Phi's a top name included winning the scholarship trophy, coming in first for the sacrifice offered at the annual bonfire, and placing third in homecoming displays.

The social whirl included a party at the Bali Hai, lunches at the house, the Spring Formal, a surprise Baby party for the actives, and the Senior Banquet.

The Phi leaders and beauties included Gracie Mussafer, President of Newcomb Student Body; Phyllis Lepon, Senior Class President; Barbara Rosen, Senior Class Treasurer; Sandy Mellow, President of Warren House; Sally Viner, Vice-President of Sophomore Class; and member of Assets; Judy Rephan, President of LaTertulia; Susan Staub, Secretary of Athletic Council; Gracie Mussafer and Phyllis Lepon, Who's Who; Joy Finkelstein, Sweetheart of AEPi; Ellen Agress, AEPi Sweetheart Court; Julie Metzger and Sandy Mellow, Homecoming Court; Susan Gold and Andie Ravinett, Cheerleaders.

Must have been a good joke, huh?

ALPHA OMICRON PI

The year began for AOPi with a fun-filled houseparty at Biloxi. Highlighting the fall semester was the Christmas Dance honoring the pledge class. The pledges were once again stolen for a Kidnap Breakfast during the second semester. Other events of the year included the Founder's Day Banquet, the Christmas Orphan Party with the Phi Kappa Sigma's, various luncheons, the Spring Formal, and the Senior Banquet.

Many AOPi's were active on campus: Merle Albert, Co-Chairman of Orientation; Susan Wise, President of the Athletic Council and in Who's Who; Margaret Noble, Chairman of Padohad; Liz Wise, Secretary of the Art School; Linda Crawford, Freshman Honor Board Representative; Carol Crosby, Army sponsor; and Jinx Farwell, one of Newcomb's representatives on Mademoiselle's College Board. AOPi's in Barracudas were Mary Edith Larson, Sally Balch, and Jinx Farwell. House Council Representatives were Beverly and Barbara Burgess and Ann Yerger. Elaine Treon and Mary Kay Spier were AOPi's abroad.

"The audience broke into a deafening roar at this point in the contest."

CHI OMEGA

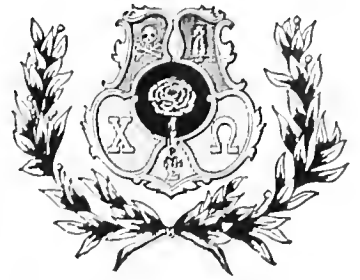

A houseparty in Biloxi started another great year which included the Fall Banquet, Pledge Banquet, Mothers Club Valentine Tea, and the Alumni Tea. A trip to Shreveport for state convention, the annual Senior Banquet, and Spring Formal rounded out the year.

Student leaders are Ann Staples, Pan-Hellenic President; Carolyn Council, Honor Board President; Margaret Saetre, U.C. Board President; Karen Deener, Junior Orientation Chairman; Peggy Wyatt, Resident Secretary; Tulane Student Council representative; Melinda Woods, Senior Class Secretary; Prissy Hess, Junior Class Secretary, Tulane Student Council representative. Who's Who honored Ann Staples, Blanche Newton, Margaret Saetre and Carolyn Council. Assets included Mary Sumner, president, and Sylvia Staples and Mary Riser. Mary Riser also was elected president of J. L. House. Chi Beta tapped Twinkie Floyd, Mary Morris, Mary Moffitt, and Sylvia Staples. Jo Ann Christensen was among members of the Freshman Beauty Court. Chi O again placed in Homecoming displays, this year winning first place honors.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

A houseparty before school began a busy rush season for the Theta's which ended with the pledging of twenty-eight girls. Before initiation a series of pledge-active afternoons of rivalry drew the girls into the group. The pledges also joined in volunteer work at the Crippled Children's Hospital.

An informal party during the first semester, a Christmas party given by the pledges, a pledge "kidnap" breakfast, and the spring formal filled the Theta calendar.

Active on campus were: Susan Elliot, cheerleader; Cathi Twist, student council; Mary Crilly, Assets; Patty Bourland, resident president; Susan Nagle, Tulanians; and Colleen Spence and Anne Greer, Mortar Board. Members of Inner Council were Jeanne Barnett, Mary Crilly, Barbara Burnett, and Nina McIntosh who is president of Doris Hall. Carolyn Degellos is in Army ROTC, and Jeanne Barnett, Carol Herndon, and Madeline Furey are members of Angel Flight. JYA are Pi George, Sue Anna Moss, and Melinda Littrell.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

The Beatles' presence at the fall house party was an appropriate beginning to what proved to be an eventful year for the Kappas. The events of first semester included the foreign students party, the Openhouse following Homecoming, the Boat Ride party, the SAE-Kappa Orphan Christmas party, and the toasting in of a spectacular pledge class at Bruno's. Spring activities were the annual Art Show, the formal, the Founders' Day banquet, and the highlight of the whole year—the initiation of Kappa pledges.

Kappas active on campus were Pat Alverson, vice-president of the Newcomb Student body; Laurie Kyle, corresponding secretary; Florence DeFroschia, Homecoming Queen; Pat Alverson and Barbie Winter, Homecoming Court; Judy Hull, cheerleader; Elaine Cuellar, secretary of Greenbackers; Susan Cosgrove and Mary Anne Kent, Mortar Board; Pat Alverson, Susan Cosgrove, and Mary Kent, Who's Who.

PI BETA PHI

The Pi Phi tradition of active, outstanding campus leaders was carried on by Margie Nolan, Freshman class president; Carol Welch, Sophomore class president; Mary Brown, Junior class president; Martha Eshleman, Junior class treasurer; Patty Heatherly, secretary of Tulane Student Body; and Jackie Hestwood, president of Butler, Inner Council Member, Honor Board. Listed among Assets were Susan Marland and Carol Welch. Mortar Board members included Gridley McKim and Jackie Hestwood. Mary Helen Young served as secretary of the U. C. Board. Jackie Hestwood was selected for the 1964 Homecoming Court. Dudley Braselton was chosen as an International Beauty by an Italian magazine.

The chapter was internationally flavored with a pledge from Rome, Italy, three returning JYA'ers, and letters from members in Paris and London.

As a group Pi Phi continued high-ranked in sports and homecoming displays. Pi Phi parties included a hayride, barn-dance, all-fraternity Christmas party, luncheons, banquets, fraternity pledge parties, and the grand finale formal.

SIGMA DELTA TAU

Winning the Pan-Hellenic trophy highlighted months of togetherness for SDT. The fall semester began with a pre-school houseparty and included the Homecoming display, luncheons at the house, a philanthropic project for two New Orleans orphanages, and an informal party. Second semester the Sig Delts enjoyed, among their other activities, a fun-filled week-end retreat in Biloxi, and the annual Spring Formal Weekend.

SDT is very proud of its many members who excell in campus activities: Debbie Shapiro, Newcomb student body recording secretary and a member of Assets; Ruth Sang, Sophomore class secretary; Hedy Mannheimer, Art School President; Marilyn Monsky, Vice-president of the Senior class, Mortar Board Vice-president, and Who's Who; Marsha Sidel, Mortar Board President and Who's Who; Marian Wadler, U. C. Music Committee Chairman; Reva Aronson, TEP Sweetheart; Ellyn Mintz, AEPi Sweetheart Court; and Cheryl Brownstein, Freshman Class Treasurer.

TULANE PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The Tulane Pan-Hellenic Council is the general co-ordinating and supervisory agency for the eighteen national fraternities on the Tulane campus. The council is made up of two chosen representatives from each of the respective fraternities. A Judicial Committee and officers establish and execute the policies of the council, and serve as arbitrators in case of dispute.

The competitive activities of the fraternities are supervised by the Director of Interfraternity Activities and an Athletic Committee. These competitive activities include such events as touch football, basketball, swimming, track, scholarship, and such minor sports as bridge, ping-pong, golf, wrestling, and handball. Campus Carnival and Homecoming displays are also included in the Pan-Hell competition.

The highlights of the year are the September rush week, pledging, the Pan-Hellenic Formal, Greek Week featuring "help day", and finally initiation. In the fall at the welcoming banquet for the new pledges, the Scholarship Trophy is awarded to the fraternity obtaining the highest overall academic average of the previous year. A Pan-Hellenic Trophy is awarded to that fraternity accumulating the largest number of points during the past year.

ALPHA EPSILON PI

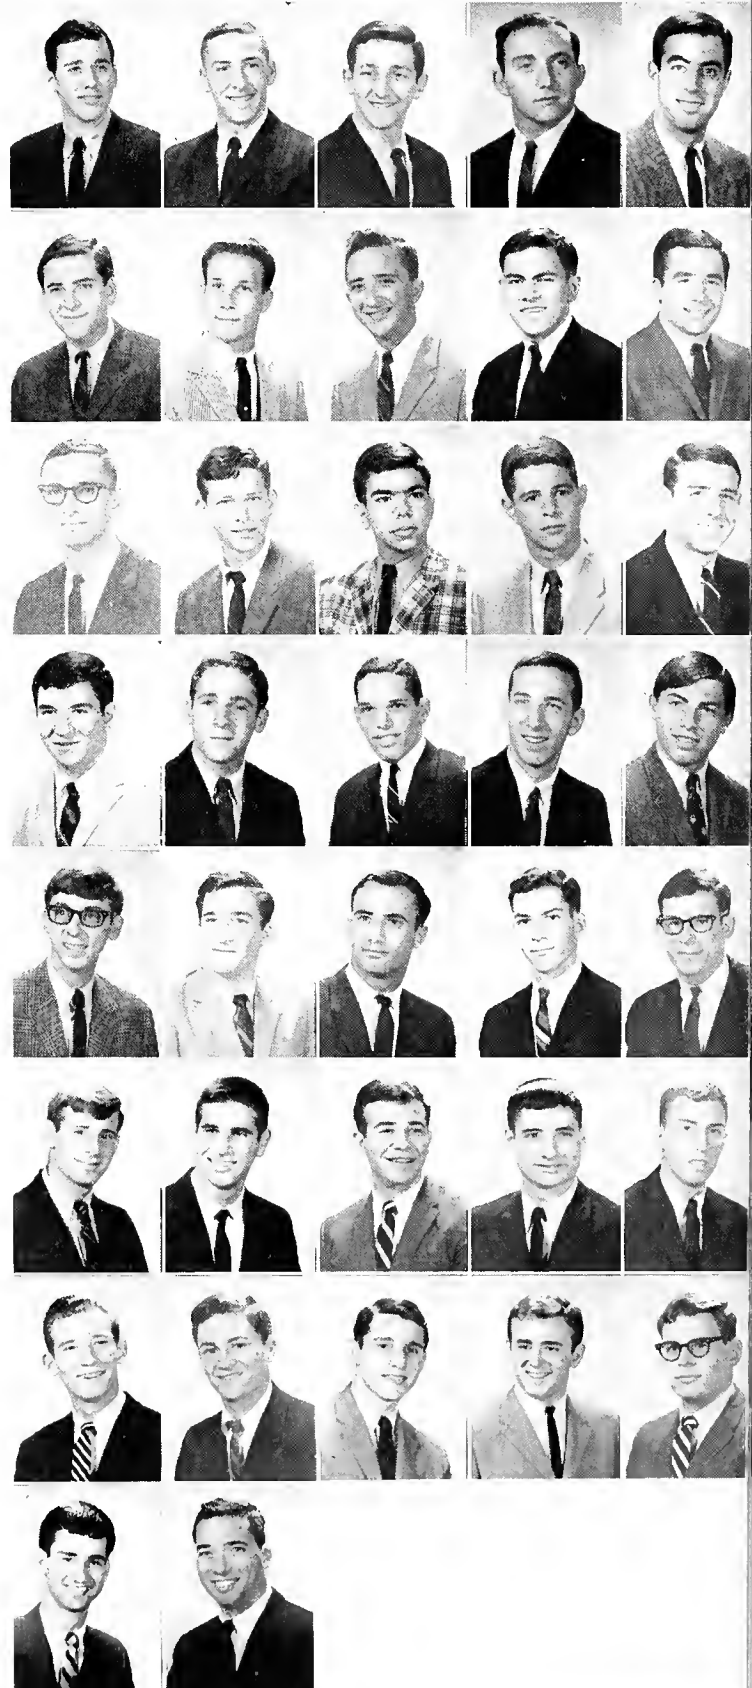

Founded: New York University, 1913
Established at Tulane: 1951

The AEPi's enjoyed another successful year at Tulane. The year started off with a bang with the pledging of 31 of Tulane's finest. Then came Pi's first place Homecoming display, the "Key-deterrent."

On the social side, AEPi went all out with its weekly TGIF parties, its mid-year Mama Lou's bash, the finishing touch was the annual Sweetheart Formal.

In Campus activities, AEPi's excelled. Brothers were in such important positions as: Business Manager of the Jambalaya, Editor and Business Manager of the Student Directory, President of the Pre-Medical Society, WTUL announcers, A & S Class officers, Engineering Class Officers, Members on the University Center Board, members of Who's Who, Greenbackers, Honor Board, Omicron Delta Kappa, Student Council, varsity athletic teams, and many others.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI

Founded: Yale, 1845

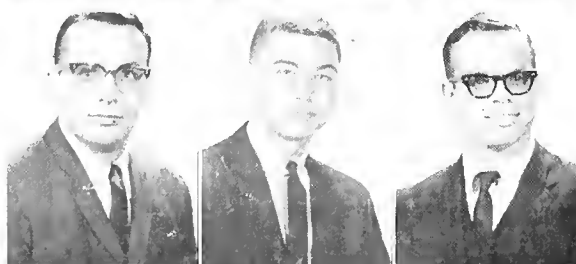

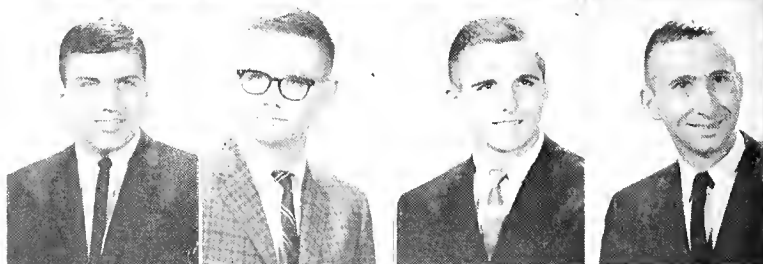

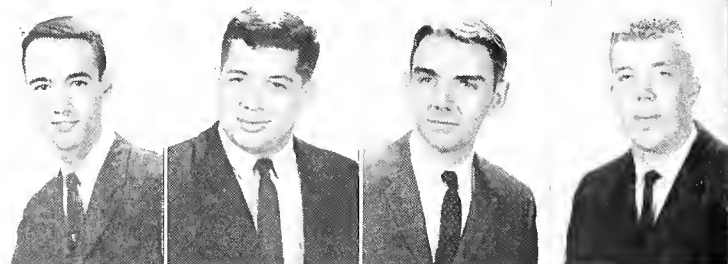

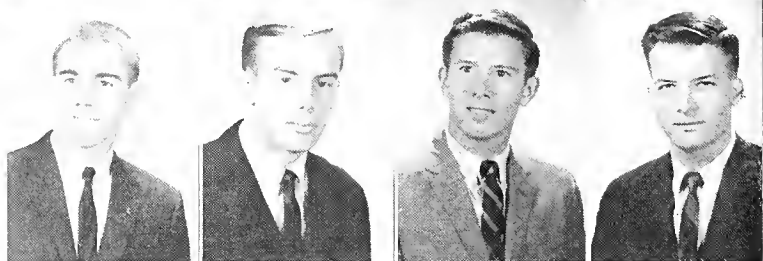

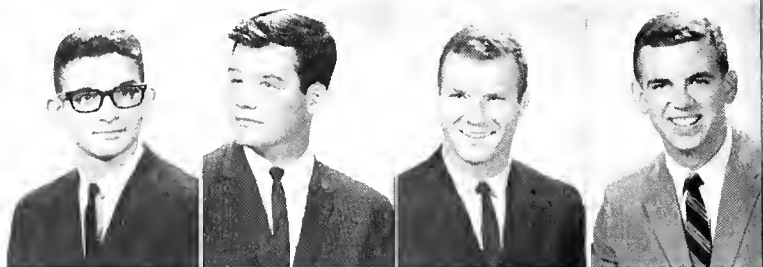

Established at Tulane: 1962

Gamma Omicron of Alpha Sigma Phi initiated its third year as a chartered fraternity of the Tulane campus with a successful rush week in a completely renovated house.

Alpha Sigs assumed active roles in numerous campus activities including WTUL, Jambalaya, Scholars & Fellows, the Sailing Club, and many University Center Committees. While striving to seek a larger part in campus activities, Alpha Sig also seeks to maintain its outstanding scholastic record.

The social calendar provided many fine fraternity affairs. The Hawaiian party and the Black and White Formal are just a couple to be mentioned. New this year were an orphan's Christmas party and a regional alumni banquet.

Alpha Sigma Phi is on its way to bigger and better things on the Tulane campus.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Founded: Virginia Military Institute, 1865
Established at Tulane: 1887

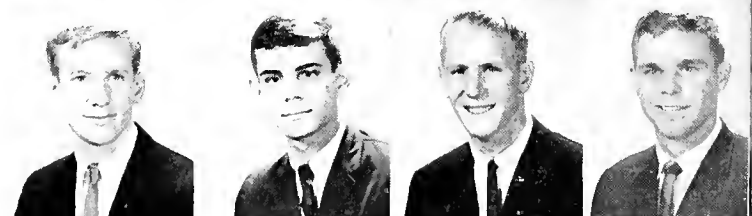

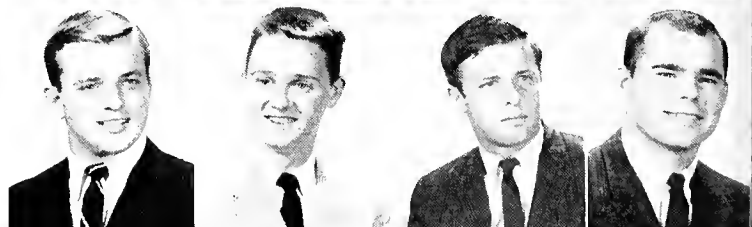

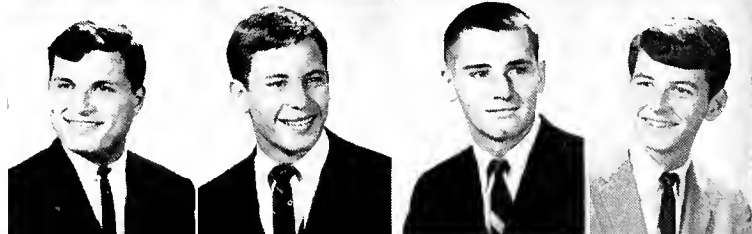

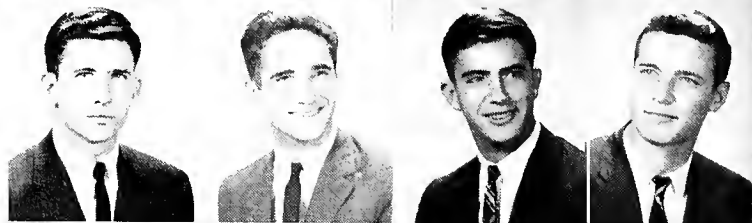

This was the 100th year of the existence of Alpha Tau Omega and Beta Epsilon's 77th year on campus. It was, in many ways, a year of superlatives.

Beginning the year by pledging nineteen outstanding men, the chapter held the usual round of parties highlighted by the Pledge Party and the Spring Formal.

In Pan-Hellenic competition the chapter placed first in the over all athletic totals and second in scholarship to win the Pan-Hellenic trophy, symbolic of the outstanding fraternity on campus.

In varsity athletics were: Bill Zimmerman and Larry Merrigan, football; Skip Booker, Richie Schmidt and Ralph Turner, baseball; Harry Belin, Scott Sanders, and Tom Staples, track; Frank Lamothe, tennis.

In Campus honoraries: Bill Watts, ODK, TBPI; Brian Barcelo ODK, TBPI; Bill Hightower, ODK, TBPI; Don Adams, TBPI.

BETA THETA PI

Founded: Miami University of Ohio, 1839

Established at Tulane: 1908

Beginning with the tabulation of the unusually successful summer thieves, Beta Xi chapter of Beta Theta Pi began another year. Rush week ended with the pledging of eighteen outstanding freshmen. Beta once again put up a valiant but futile effort in Pan-Hellenic activities. After the end of the first semester much comment was heard around the Beta house on the members outstanding scholarship. Outstanding this year were Beta's Bill Goss and Conrad Meyer, SEC all-academic football team, Ray Lake, varsity tennis, and Malcolm Meyer, track.

On the lighter side, Beta continued its well renowned reputation for social activities. The Lafitte "Crab" party, the Christmas party, and the jungle party were capped by the Beta Theta formal in the Royal Orleans. All in all it was another good year for Beta Theta Pi.

DELTA KAPPA EPSILON

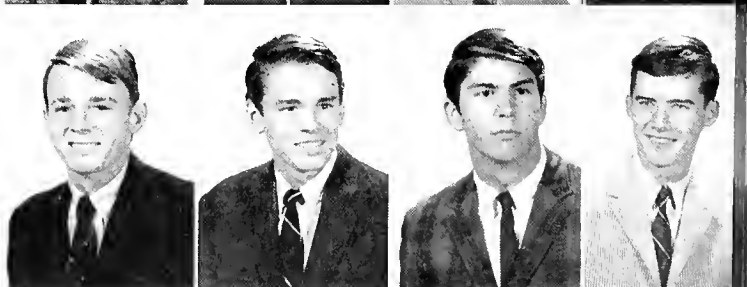

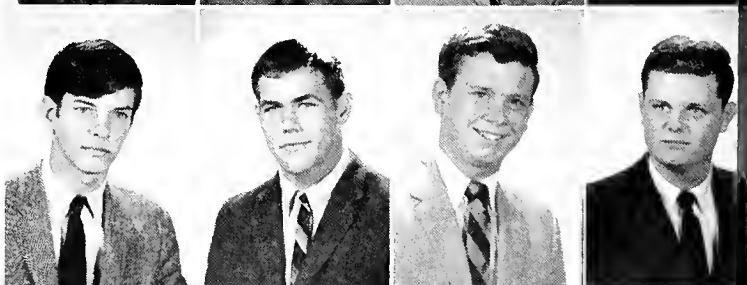

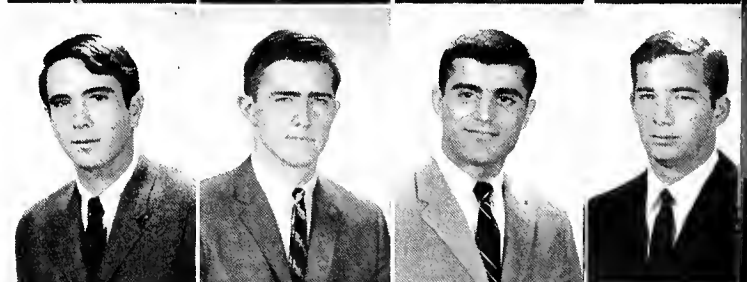

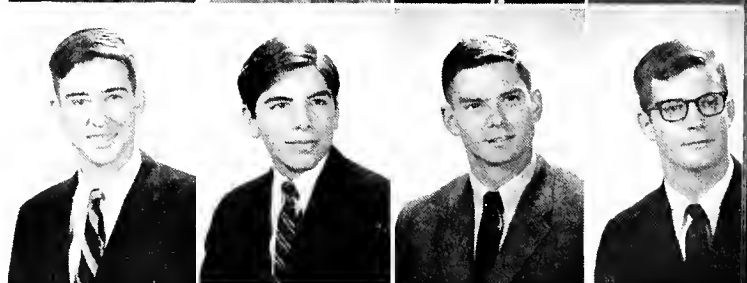

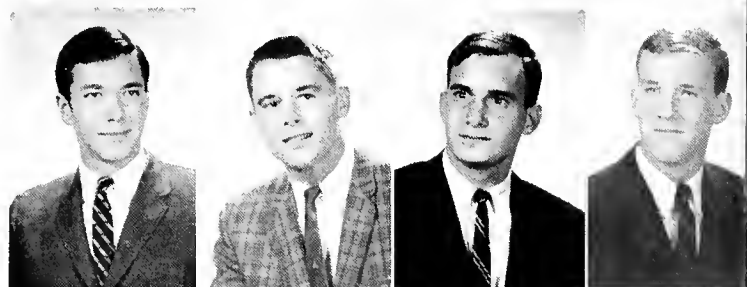

Founded: Yale, 1844

Established at Tulane: 1889

The Dekes enjoyed a tremendous rush week this year, pledging seventeen promising young men; then began the usual circuit of parties, highlighted by the Debutramp Ball, the Viking Party, and the hilarious Pledge Party.

Activities this year included football games against the Pi Phis and the Kappas, and a hurricane relief party with the Kappas. On campus, Tau Lambda was active in many areas. Jerry Friedrichs was on Student Council; Jim O'Connor, Business School Honor Board; John Wogan and Carl Cleveland, members of the Tulane Law Review, plus numerous other activities.

The Dekes feel they have carried on the fraternity's tradition this year and look forward to a very promising future.

DELTA TAU DELTA

Founded: Bethany College, 1858

Established at Tulane: 1889

Following a successful rush week in which the Chapter pledged 30 outstanding men, Delts were hopeful that their 75th year would be the best yet. Immediately the freshmen showed their worth when three of them were elected to class offices. The Members are represented in every phase of campus life. Noah Long is Beta Xi's newest ODK, while Fritz Hedges and Jim Hinds made Tau Beta Pi. Delts were also active in Tulanians, Student Council and athletics. Al Higgins and Bill Bailey played varsity football, while Don Cobb won track honors. In swimming Delts continued their domination in both varsity and Pan-Hell competition, led by co-captain Dave Herold. With a doubled party area, this year's social life promises to continue its successful course. The South Sea Island Party and the Mods and Rockers Party will again be top events.

KAPPA ALPHA

Founded: Washington and Lee, 1865
Established at Tulane: 1885

Kappa Alpha Order was founded in an atmosphere of idealism by four young men who sought to develop academic excellence, gentlemanly conduct and high moral standards among themselves and their fellow students based on a concept of Christian fellowship.

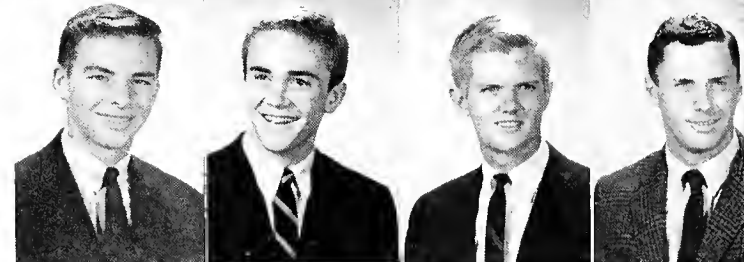

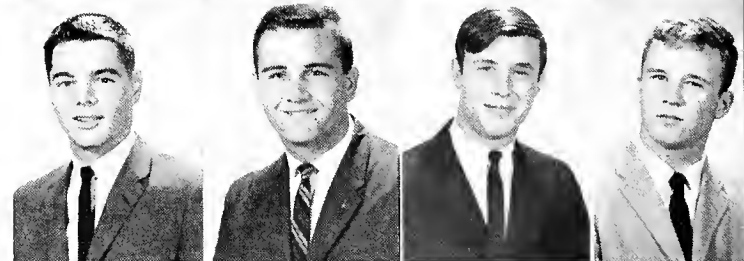

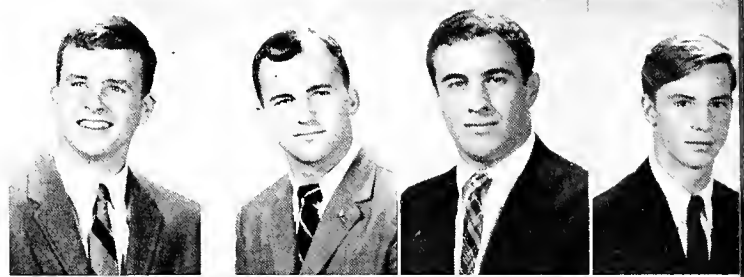

General Lee, exemplifying the highest traits of manliness, became the inspiration for the life and conduct of the group and thus earned a place of reverence in the hearts and lives of all KA's as the Spiritual Founder of Kappa Alpha Order.

Psi Chapter enjoyed a splendid rush week, pledging 23 most outstanding men. Of this group 17 made their grades first semester, giving the chapter great potential for a strong sophomore class in '65-'66.

Not to be outdone, Psi "the friendly chapter," undertook the traditional parties including: the Shifazer's, Bushman's, and Old South Balls plus an occasional house party at the plantation home of Brother Fagomel.

KAPPA SIGMA

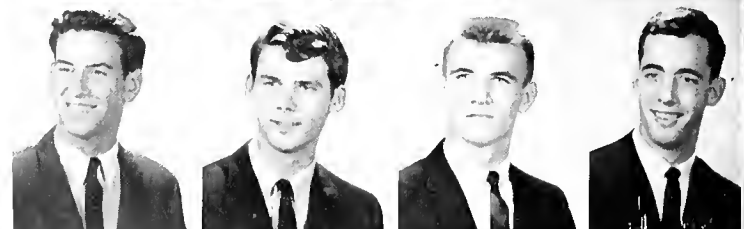

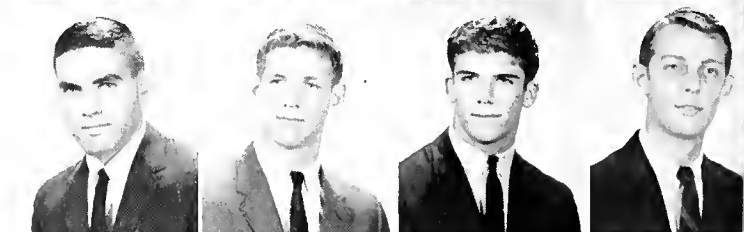

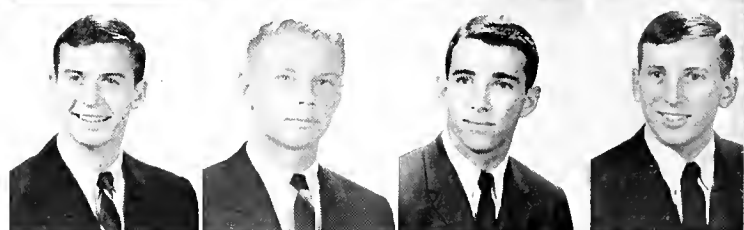

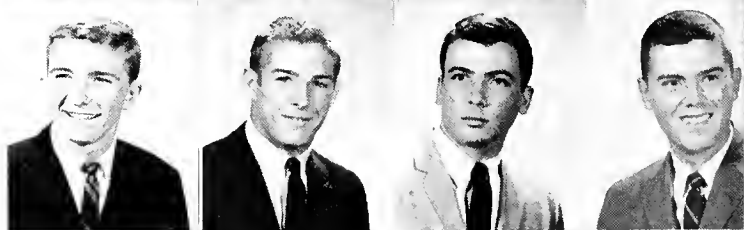

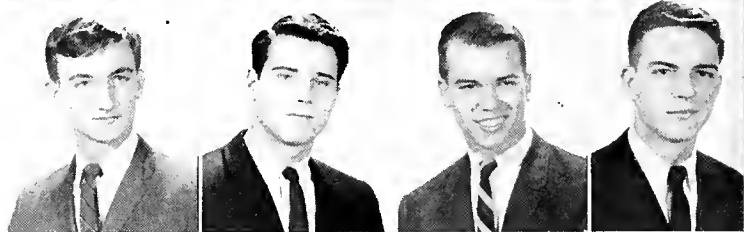

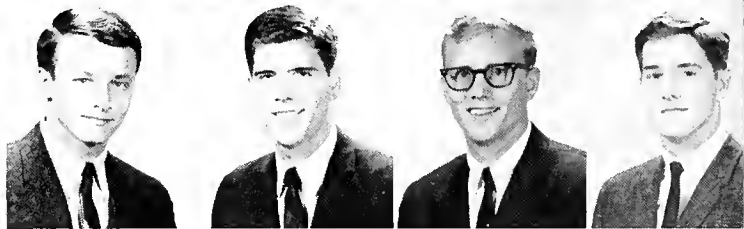

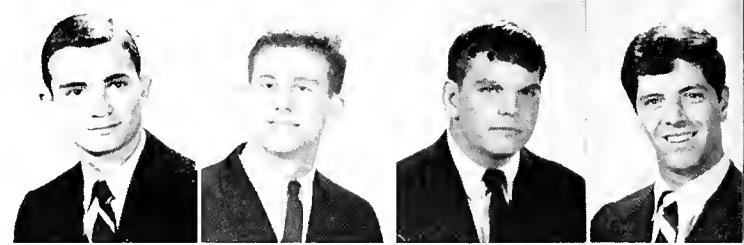

Founded: University of Virginia, 1869
Established at Tulane: 1889

The men enjoyed a splendid rush week, pledging 29 promising young gentlemen. The party schedule included the perennially lavish Christmas and spring Balls; along with the Pirate Party and the Jungle Party.

Sigma, as always, was active on campus; including among the brothers the president of the Pan-Hellenic council, four members of the Honor Board, and two members each of Omicron Delta Kappa, Who's Who, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Many brothers, such as Malcom Ziegler and Steve Kimbrough in football, were active in sports.

The men of Kappa Sigma look back to a rewarding past and forward to a very promising future.

PHI DELTA THETA

Founded: Miami University of Ohio, 1848
Established at Tulane: 1889

Phi Delta Theta celebrated seventy-five years of existence on the Tulane campus this year with a banquet at the house at which gathered Phi Delts of many generations. This seventy-fifth anniversary is symbolic of the strength of a fraternity that has always produced its share of outstanding men.

Rush week began another traditional year of academic and social enlightenment for the Phi Delts at Tulane, a week that was highlighted by the annual Pre-Christmas Pin-the-Tail-On-the-Donkey Party with music being provided by Big Bad John and his Thirteen Screamin Geeks. Twenty men were pledged, and the chapter settled down to the more serious business at hand.

The chapter's long range social calendar included the amazing Christmas Party, the Spring Formal, which was such a success last year. The pledge class planned to host several champagne parties for the Newcomb sororities on campus.

PHI KAPPA SIGMA

Founded: University of Pennsylvania, 1850

Established at Tulane: 1858

Rush at the Phi Kap house produced a select class of twenty-eight. New pledges got right into the swing of things by netting first place in the annual pep sacrificial bonfire. An extensive social schedule was highlighted by the annual Christmas and New Year's Eve parties, the Phi Kap AAOPi Orphans' Party, and several TGIF parties.

Skill campus personalities include Omicron De'ta Kappa president Tom Regan, Phi Eta Sigma president Charlie Klaveness and secretary Wilson Jones, Arts and Sciences vice-president Terry Anderlini, A&S Junior Class secretary Ed Myrick, and sailing champs "Injun Bob" Lightfoot, Niels Johnsen and Chuck Foto.

Scholastically, the fraternity boasts seven members of Scholars and Fellows, and four of Phi Eta Sigma. The chapter is fifth in scholarship among Tulane fraternities.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Founded: University of Virginia, 1868

Established at Tulane: 1878

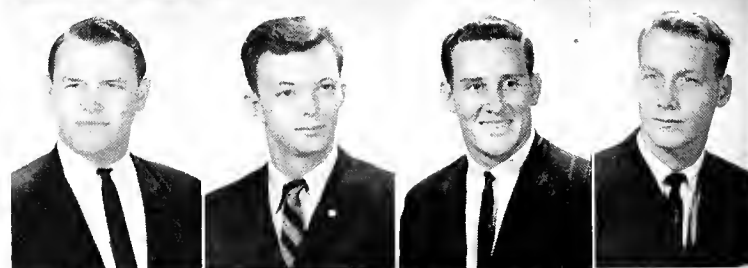

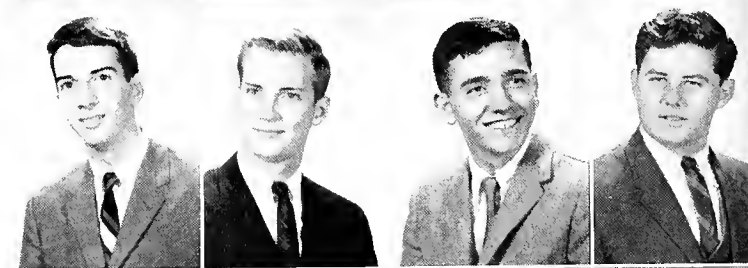

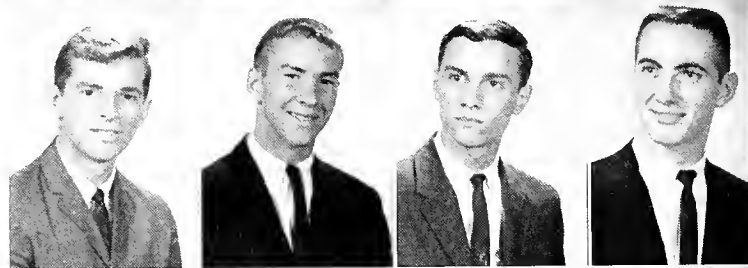

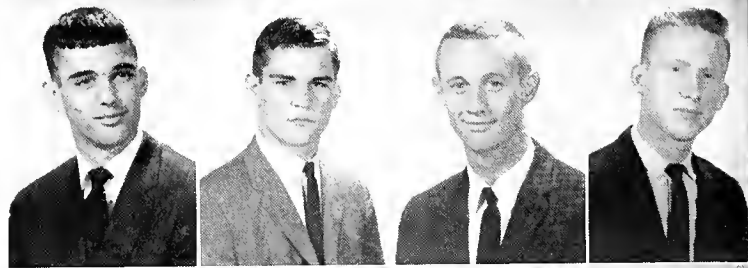

With brotherhood as our guiding light, the Pikes of Eta are having an outstanding year. We have a great pledge class of 25, from all over the country and a few from Latin America. This pledge class is one of the best on campus and should prove to be a real asset to Eta.

The Pikes are very proud of the academic success of this year. We have a "4.0" pledge for the second year running and a higher overall average. Over half the pledge class made the necessary grades for initiation.

The Pikes are also proud of the enthusiasm showed by the Eta men in their participation in on and off campus activities. The Etas have had a strong team for all the Pan-Hellenic sports competition for the fall semester and are looking forward to greater success in the spring semester. The Pikes are well represented in all ROTC units again this year. We also have boys on the Freshmen tennis and basketball teams and one boy on the Varsity swimming team.

The social life around the Pike house has been and promises to continue to be the best ever. We had our fabulous annual Christmas party in addition to a fine series of parties since rush week. We have a great formal planned for Founder's Day, March 1, which happens to be the day before the Mardi Gras holidays. It will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Royal Orleans Hotel.

The Eta Pikes are looking forward to a better year than ever here at Tulane.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

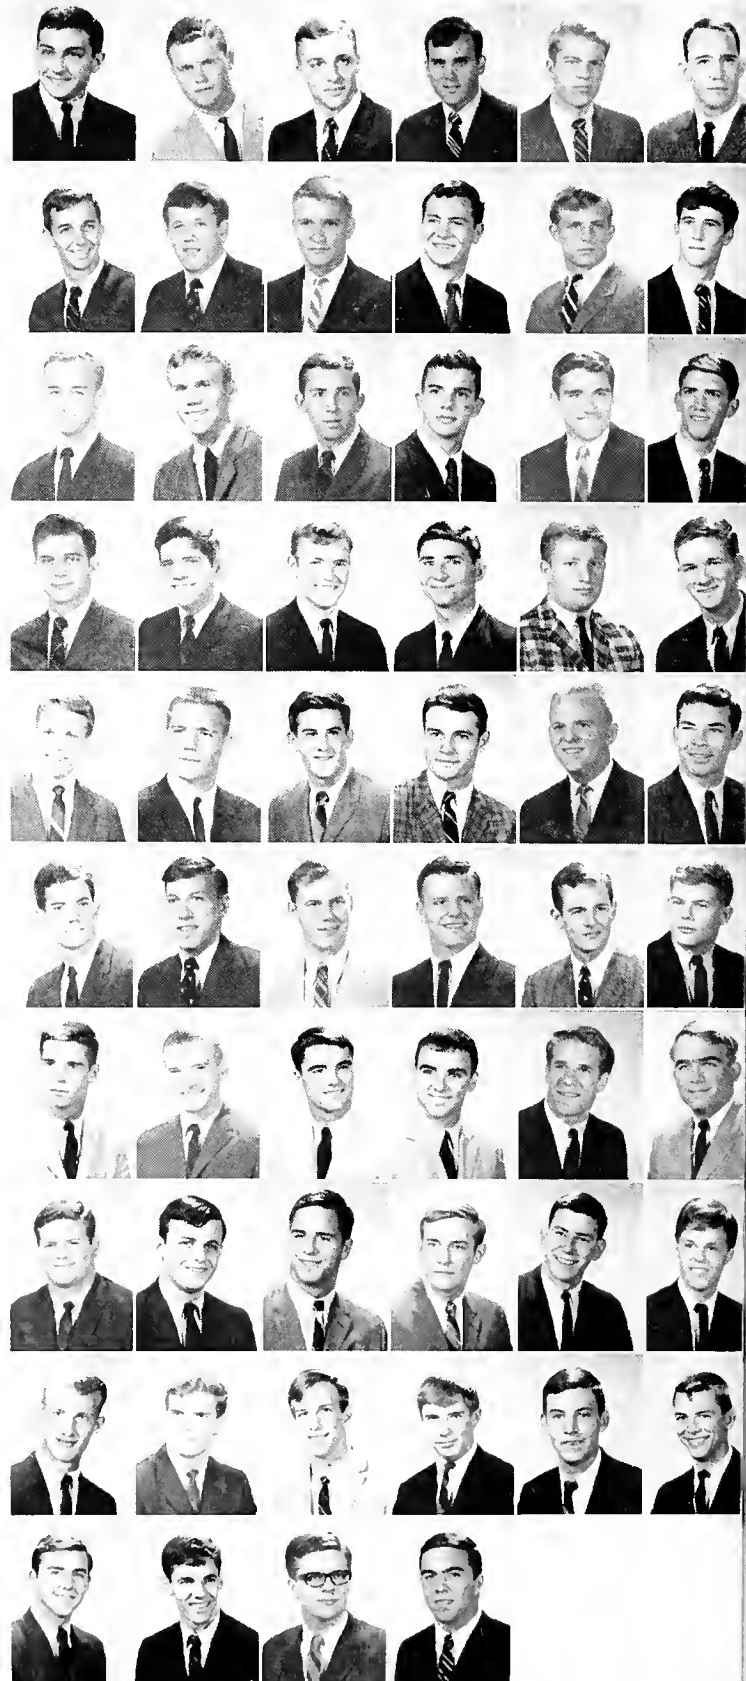

Founded: University of Alabama, 1856
Established at Tulane: 1897

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, founded before the Civil War at the University of Alabama, was the first Southern fraternity. Since that time, the fraternity has grown, until today when it is the largest national fraternity with 145 chapters in 46 states.

Louisiana Tau-Upsilon Chapter of SAE emphasizes all areas of student life. For the past two years the chapter has been the leading fraternity scholastically. In Pan-Hellenic athletic competition, SAE has finished first or second for the past eleven years. Their full social schedule is highlighted by the Pledge Party, the Cane-Cutters Brawl, and the Spring Formal. In campus activities, SAE is represented by leaders in all areas of student government and student life, by varsity athletes in all Tulane sports, and by its members in ODK, Phi Eta Sigma, AED, Tau Beta Pi, KDPI, Who's Who, and the Tulane Scholars and Fellows Program.

The SAE chapter climaxed an excellent rush week with the pledging of 34 outstanding men and now looks forward to another successful year.

SIGMA ALPHA MU

Founded: College of the City of New York, 1909
Established at Tulane: 1920

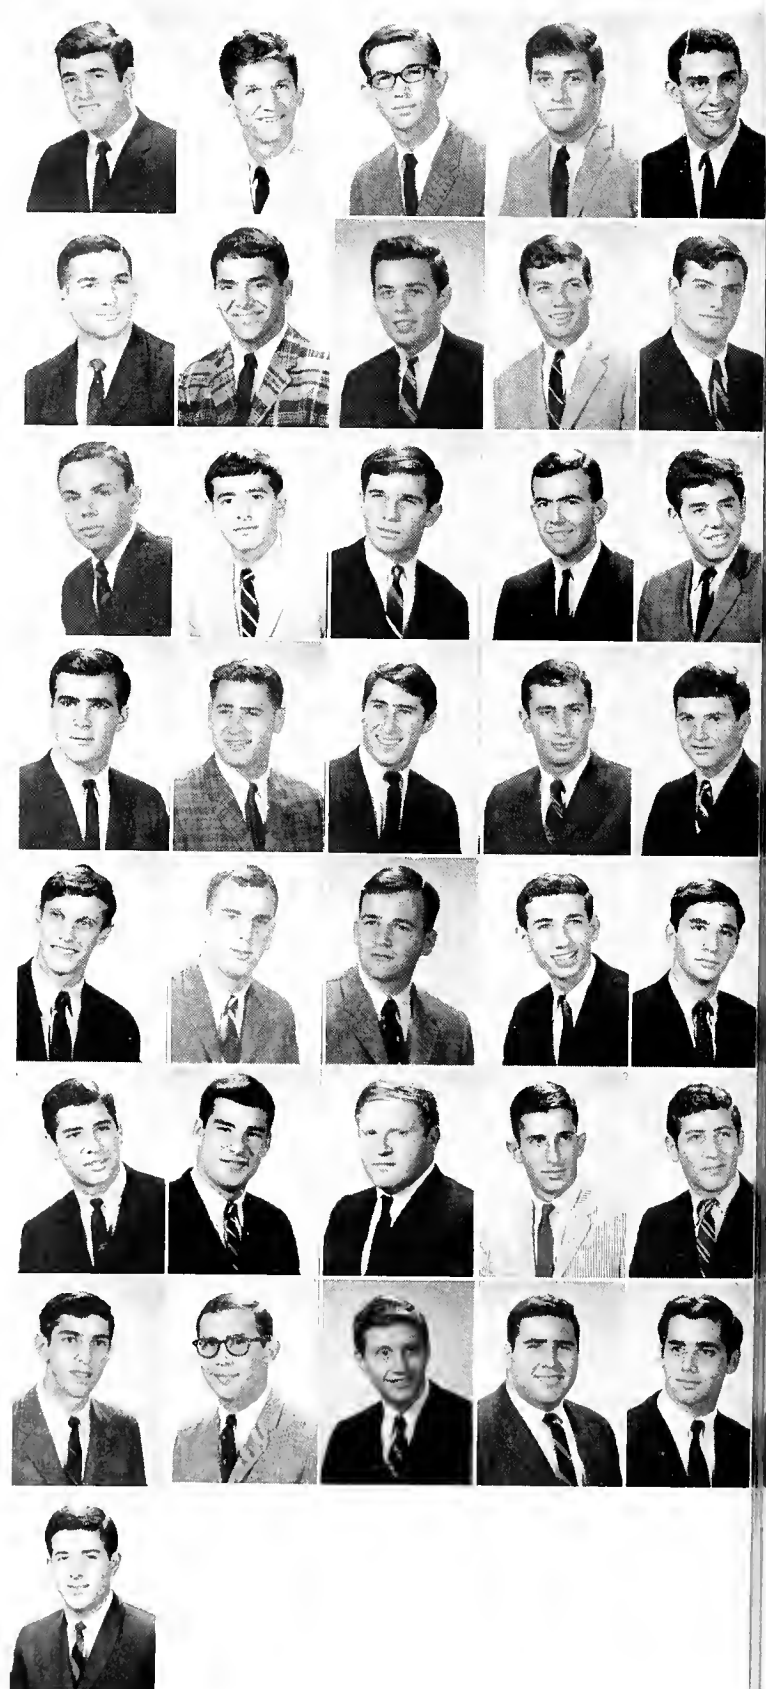

In the forty-four years on the campus, the men of Sigma Alpha Mu are proud of the reputation they have established. This year the Sammies again began with a successful rush week—pledging 30 of the finest boys going through rush.

The first semester started with the usual events. Socially there was the pajama party, the obnoxious party, and others running through the final affair of the year—the Hawaiian Hangover. Athletically, the Sammies won the Pan-Hel Football Championship and placed high in all other competition. The pledge class won the annual Nose Bowl game against the pledges of ZBT, 13-0.

The Fraternity has many men in top positions on campus. There are Sammies on the Student Activities Board, Honor Board, University Center Board, and Student Council. Offices held in student government include Vice-President of the Freshman class of A&S, Richard Green, and Dennis Aronson, President of Freshman Engineering. Bruce Paltrow and Bill Shapiro are in Who's Who and Sammy is represented on many other honoraries.

Sigma Alpha Mu is also well represented in Varsity Sports. There are Sammies on the baseball, golf, and track teams, the captain of the track team, Bill Shapiro, is a senior in our house.

SIGMA CHI

Founded: Miami University of Ohio, 1885

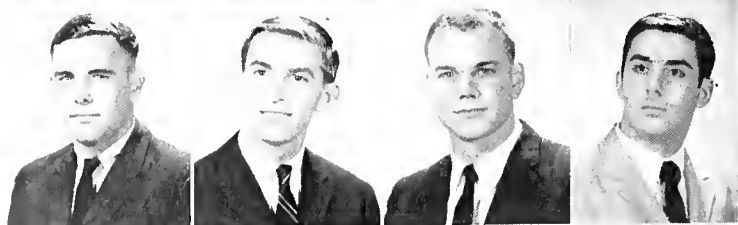

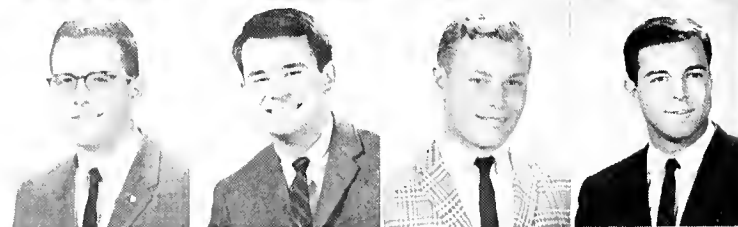

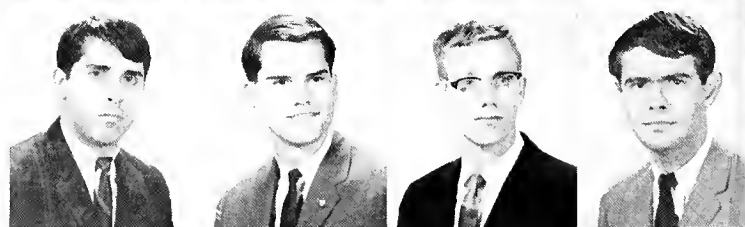

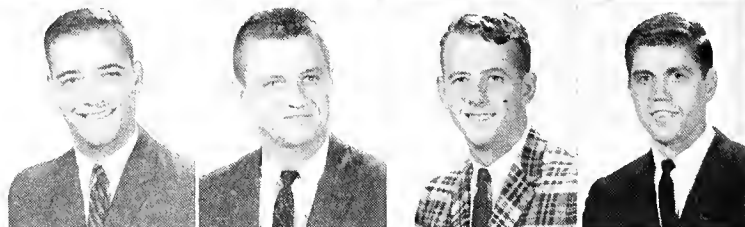

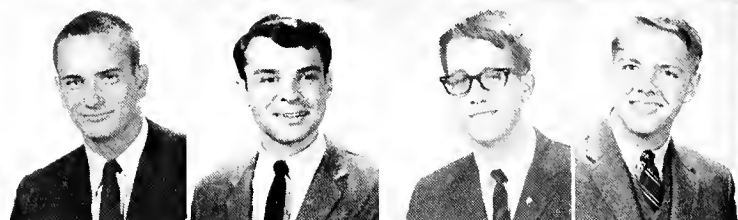

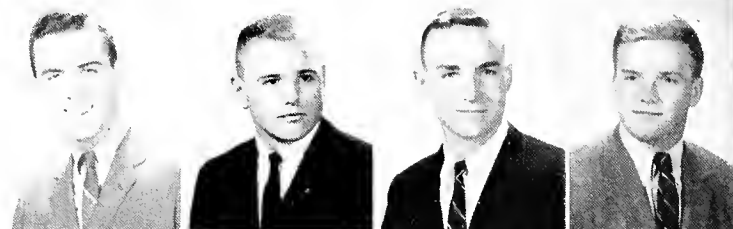

Established at Tulane: 1886

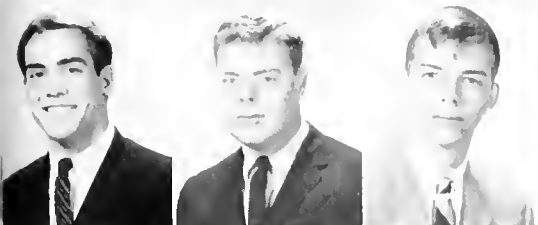

An outstanding rush week was climaxed with the pledging of 27 select young men. The Sigma Chi's perpetuated their traditional activities with Saturday night specials, sorority cocktail parties, and Friday afternoon beer busts. The social season was highlighted with the romantic Sweetheart formal and campus-wide Derby Day, in which Newcomb sororities competed. The chapter initiated a new tradition on the Tulane campus by holding the first Annual Hugh F. Burnett Memorial Raincoat Party.

Sig's were active on campus with Fleet Joiner, Rep. at Large; Bob Lobrano, Vice-Pres. of Pan-Hell; Dick Moise, Vice-Pres. of Business School; and Moise, ODK. Contributions to Tulane athletics included Sheriff Ron Krajewski, Carl Crowder, Jay Crosby, Mike Steeves, and Ron Helton—football; Ray Fontenot and Steve Bellaire—golf; and M. Kreigel—track. The chapter emitted its first light of scholarship in several decades with J. L. Colburn being named Rhodes Scholar Candidate.

After completion of a successful season, the Sigs could look back upon a year filled with advances in leadership, scholarship, and pleasure—even if Barry did lose.

SIGMA NU

Founded: Virginia Military Institute, 1869
Established at Tulane: 1888

For the Brothers of Beta Phi Chapter this has been a year of changes, improvements, and enjoyment.

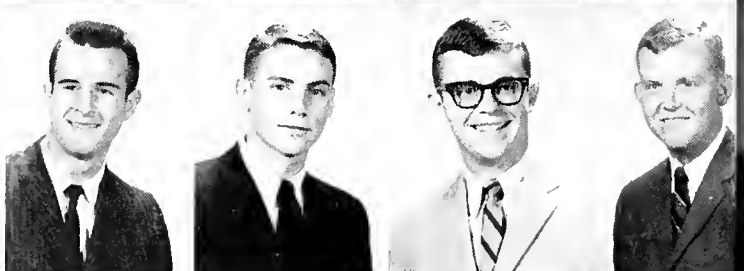

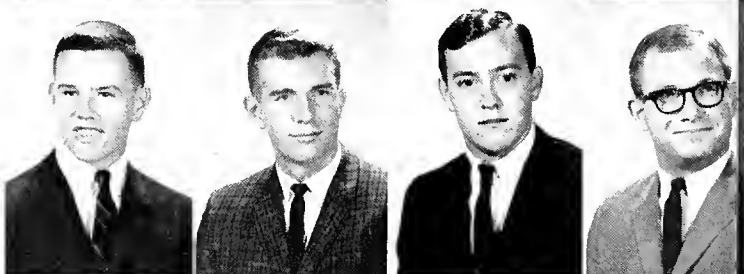

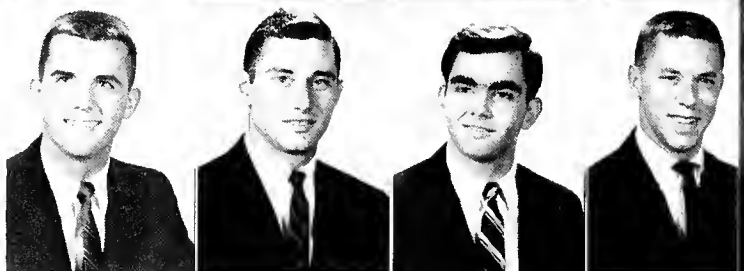

A very rewarding Rush Week highlighted by "Seymore of Galatoire's" and the one, the only, Screaming Woombat Party was the beginning of a truly fantastic Social year. Cocktail parties, Hay Rides a la pickle, sorority exchanges, after game open houses, the Christmas Formal, and the magnificent White Rose Formal all were very pleasurable.

The fine new kitchen and good meals greatly boosted the chapter's newly established academic program. Two of the brothers, Francis Nicholson and Ed Arthur (Phi Eta Sigma), spent their Junior Year Abroad studying in Great Britain.

This year the brothers functioned in a wide variety of beneficial capacities on and off campus. They were members of UC committees, Pan-Hellenic Board, APO Service Fraternity, and active participants in the Tulane Foward Fund and National Tuberculosis Association Drives. One brother Keith Kleespies, was especially notable as the invaluable cartoonist for the Jambalaya and Hullabaloo.

In varsity sports Jim Davis and George Smith played football, Dick Rogers ran track, Melvin Jackson played golf.

SIGMA PI

Founded: Vincennes, Indiana, 1897
Established at Tulane: 1920

Sigma Pi topped an excellent rush week by securing a 20 man pledge class. Activities following rush included the usual parties, pledge-active football game, sorority luncheons, Christman Orphans' Party, and New Year Bash with Bennie Spellman.

In the spring, the Orchid Formal, Champagne Social, Mardi Gras truck ride, and Founders Day Banquet headlined an outstanding social program.

Sigma Pi was well represented in campus activities, having members in all ROTC drill teams, Scholars and Fellows program, intramural sports council, UC committees, and house and dorm councils. BMOC's include Harris Yates, Larry Guichard, and Hudson Nichols, staff officers of the Army ROTC brigade; Denny Spranley, president of the Newman Club and of Eta Sigma Phi Honorary; and Bruce Ludwig, secretary-treasurer of Circle K.

TAU EPSILON PHI

Founded: Columbia University, 1910
Established at Tulane: 1956

Epsilon Kappa Chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi began its eighth year of existence with its most successful rush week ever. Twenty-nine pledges were accepted, which is the largest pledge class in the chapters' history.

After receiving the "most improved chapter award" at the national TEP convention last year, Epsilon Kappa continued to excel in all phases of campus activity. Members were initiated into the following honorary organizations: Phi Eta Sigma; Alpha Chi Sigma; Alpha Epsilon Delta; and Scabbard and Blade. Also, the chapter boasts last year's star and this year's president of Campus Night, "Jerry" Springer, who is also Chancellor of this chapter.

Last, but not least, the boys elected one of the prettiest girls at Newcomb for their sweetheart—Reva Aronson from Houston, Texas. This year the boys are planning their annual Spring Formal at the plush Royal Orleans Hotel. At that time, the new sweetheart and officers will be named.

ZETA BETA TAU

Founded: Jewish Theological Seminary, 1898

Established at Tulane: 1909

The fall semester at ZBT began, as usual, with the rush week that has consistently won the National Rushing trophy. This year we bid and pledged 39 fine men, one of the largest pledge classes on campus.

Our athletic season was of an equally high caliber. We placed in almost every sport of the fall semester; 3rd in football, 2nd in swimming, 2nd in bowling, 3rd in golf, and 1st in ping-pong, putting ZBT very near the top of the Inter-Fraternity standings. Projecting, we see high finishes in basketball and soft-ball, as in the past, as well as continued success in other, minor, sports.

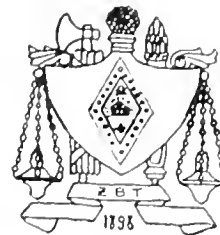

The social season at 1006 Broadway was by far one of the best in memory. Such parties as the Grubby, the Orgy, as well as the Winter Formal, and the usually fine Saturday-nite parties all combined to give ZBT's high social rating a further boost. Naturally, all of these parties were secondary to the amazing Spring Formal featuring as entertainment the fabulous Jackie Wilson and his orchestra.

Other events of special merit include our annual Christmas party for a local orphanage—which always proves to be one of the highlights of the year.

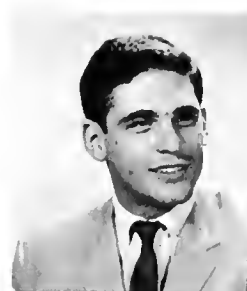

In short, the year 1964-1965 seems to be one of the best years in history for one of the best chapters on campus.

Alma Mater...

For more than three-quarters of a century the Whitney, like Tulane, has nurtured the dreams and ambitions of young men and women. With these plans the natural and economic resources of our area have grown, and we have grown with them. We congratulate the University and its alumni on the important contribution Tulane has made in developing young men and women whose vision, courage and hard work have helped so much to build their country.

A WORD TO

College seniors and graduate students

You are on the threshold of one of the most exciting and important phases of your life . . . your career. Your reward for many hours of study will be a good position in your chosen field of endeavor. In other words, your future is unlimited. Why not protect it NOW?

PACE, Pan-American's College Estate plan, was designed just for you seniors and graduate students, to provide a fair amount of life insurance protection at an age when you benefit from lower rates. This is protection that will grow with you. And, we can guarantee that in future years we will sell you additional coverage regardless of health or occupational hazards.

Yes, we know you don't have funds enough to buy life insurance while in school. Most of us at Pan-American Life remember our undergraduate days when money was a scarce item. That's why we have built into the PACE plan a special deferred payment arrangement. It allows you to purchase a nominal amount of life insurance with the premium payment coming due after graduation, when you are located in that first big job.

There's a Pan-American agent near you. Why not give him a call, or write to our Special Plans Department in New Orleans for complete details of our unique PACE plan.

HOW TO GET RID OF THAT "LIVED-IN" LOOK
... go to MB, young man ...

Pull yourself together, man. Live it up! Get coat-and-pants to match... treat yourself to a couple MB ties. An MB sport jacket will breathe new life into those old slacks... into your old gal, too... when she sees the new ones come a runnin'.

Owner of Arnaud's Restaurant, daughter of the late Count Arnaud, founder of the restaurant that bears his name, as well as creator of many famous Creole and French dishes famed throughout the world.

ARNAUD'S—Selected the best restaurant of the South for the 2000th anniversary of the founding of the City of Paris.

Few are the people who set foot on the sidewalk of New Orleans who do not seek to learn the location of Arnaud's and forthwith journey there to enjoy this famous cuisine. After partaking of a notable meal, guests frequently ask the derivation of a particular dish: "Is it French?" "Is it Spanish?" The answer is that it is a combination of the wizardry of the French with the art of Spanish to make Arnaud's masterpieces.

• Congratulations to the Student Body and Faculty of the Tulane University for completion of another outstanding year of accomplishments.

• The Staff of your annual has worked exceedingly hard to give you a superb book and one which portrays the highlights of memorable activities.

• Neither time, effort nor expense have been spared to provide you with a permanent record, attractively presented and complete in every detail.

• To preserve the photography and literary efforts of the Staff, the best grades of material have been combined with skilled workmanship to provide the finest quality yearbook.

• We are proud that the 1965 Staff elected us to help design, print and bind the 1965 JAMBALAYA. We have earnestly endeavored to fulfill the confidence placed in us.

NASHVILLE 3, TENNESSEE

When I began thinking about the JAMBALAYA last Summer, everything seemed fairly easy. I knew what I wanted to do and how I wanted to do it. My idea was to analyze and present a memory, to recall Tulane 1964-65 in a pictorial essay filled with color, imagination and activity.

But as deadlines, budgets, and indifferent attitudes made a mess of my inspiration, I gradually realized the confusing problem that is really behind putting out a yearbook. As we began work, I had to determine what was expected from the JAMBALAYA and then put these things down in pictures and words. The final product is now before you. How successful we were in our efforts is for you to decide.

Sincere thanks go to my staff which worked so hard to put out this yearbook. The 1965 JAMBALAYA was only possible through the efforts of these people. My appreciation also goes to Mr. J. B. Morgan who served as our official keeper of the money sacks, unofficial advisor and friend in time of need . . . to Mr. Dan Eadie of Benson Printing Co. for being our guardian angel who picked up any pieces that fell . . . and to Jack Carson and all of my friends who came by during the year to lend a helping hand.
